Second Youth Dies of Injuries In Chilton Crash

Terry Handler, 18, Of Neenah, Is Victim; Inquest Planned

CHILTON — A grinding car-truck crash on the southside here about 2:20 a.m. Friday claimed a second life Friday night.

Terry Lee Handler, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Verkuilen, 1099 Laurel Court, Neenah, died about 8:15 p.m. Friday at Calumet Memorial Hospital. Calumet County Coroner Leroy Hughes said death was due to a respiratory failure which resulted from severe brain damage. Handler died without regaining consciousness.

James L. Reiter, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reiter, 416 Nicolet Blvd., Menasha, was killed almost instantly in the crash at State 57 and U.. S. 151 (S. Madison and Chestnut Streets).

Daniel Lee Piette, 18, 1014 Bay View Road, Neenah, driver of the car which struck the rear of a semi-trailer unit, is listed in "serious condition" this morning at Theda Clark Hospital, Neenah, where he was transferred Friday. He had been taken to Calumet Memorial Hospital following the crash.

Truck Driver

Driver of the semi, Myron P. Kaster, 33, route 3, Green Bay, was not injured in the accident.

The deaths of Reiter and Handler hiked the Calumet County highway death toll to 15 — a new all-time high for the county, according to Hughes. He said the previous high was 13, set in 1936, 1961 and 1962. The Calumet traffic toll last year at this time was eight — the total for the year.

Hughes told The Post-Crescent this morning that he intends to confer with Chilton City Atty. William Engler and Calumet Dist. Atty. Frank J. Schmieder regarding an inquest into Friday morning's accident. He said the conference would be held sometime next week.

According to Chilton police, the large truck Kaster was driving was southbound, making a turn onto State 57 and the Piette auto was northbound. Piette's car struck the rear wheels and axle of the semi-trailer.

Attack Fatal to Larsen Man While Driving

A 64-year-old Larsen man was pronounced dead on arrival at Riverside Community Hospital at Waupaca this morning after the cattle truck he was driving left Winnebago County Trunk H and struck a utility pole.

Coroner Art C. Miller said Harry H. Spiegelberg died of a heart attack prior to the accident which occurred a half mile east of Tustin about 9 a.m.

Details of the accident were being investigated by the Winnebago County Sheriff's Department.

Official Confirmation Sought Of Sihanouk Border Easing

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. diplomatic inquiries are under way to determine whether Prince Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia will officially back up his press statement about keeping his country free of the war in neighboring South Vietnam.

If Sihanouk's answer is yes, U.S. sources indicated a presidential envoy—perhaps Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont.—could quickly head for Phnom Penh and new efforts could be mounted for international supervision of Cambodia's frontier.

New Approach

It may be several days before Washington receives a definite reply. Cambodia has severed relations with the United States and communications between the two governments are forwarded through the Australian Embassy in the Cambodian capital.

Sihanouk opened the way for a potential new approach to settle the long-festering Cambodian sanctuary issue in an interview published in the Washington Post Friday.

The Cambodian leader said his small military forces could not prevent limited intrusions by North Vietnamese or Viet Cong troops in "outlying and uninhabited regions" of Cambodia or American combat with the Reds there. He said Cambodia would protest but would not intervene militarily if American troops entered such regions in pursuit of Communist forces.

He proposed an immediate beefing up of the three-nation International Control Commission (ICC) to improve its policing of Cambodia's borders.

And, mentioning Senate Majority Leader Mansfield by name, he said he would gladly receive a Johnson emissary to discuss reconciliation with the United States.

U.S. officials showed more immediate interest in the presidential envoy and ICC proposals than in Sihanouk's apparent acknowledgment that U.S. forces in South Vietnam could, despite his protests against all intruders, pursue the Reds across the border.

Some U.S. commanders have been anxious to strike at Communist sanctuaries in Cambodia. But Washington diplomatic sources say there is not much military pressure generally for invading the Cambodian havens at this time.

Barnard Leaving After LBJ Visit

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson wished Dr. Christian Barnard "a successful medical year in 1968, filled with many adventures," and the South African surgeon headed home today ready to try another historic heart transplant.

"I hope we won't let the President down," said Barnard after an LBJ ranch visit that turned out to be far more than the short courtesy call he had expected.

Drug Firms Guilty Of Trade Restraint

$1.7 Billion in Antibiotics Involved in Antitrust Case; Way Opened for Civil Suits

NEW YORK (AP) — Three major drug firms have been found guilty of antitrust violations in the manufacture and distribution of $1.7 billion worth of antibiotics.

The conspiracy case against the American Cyanimid Co., Bristol Myers Co. and Charles Pfizer and Co. marked a significant confrontation between the U.S. government and the multi-billion-dollar U.S. pharmaceutical industry.

A U.S. District Court jury of 11 men and a woman found the three firms guilty of restraint of trade, conspiracy to monopolize and actual monoply. The panel returned the verdict Friday night after beginning deliberations Thursday.

Civil Suits

Maximum penalties on the charges are fines of $150,000 against each defendant. The convictions also open the way for civil suits from major purchasers. The Sherman Antitrust Act provides for treble damages against violators.

The trial occurred as growing federal involvement in the health field through medicare and other programs has generated increased concern over the cost and quality of that care.

The drug industry has been undergoing increasing scrutiny by the federal government. Sen. Gaylord Nelson, D-Wis., has been conducting a wide-ranging probe of drug prices.

Clifford D. Siverd, president of American Cyanimid, expressed surprise and disappointment in the verdict and said the firm would "take all possible steps in the federal courts to have this adverse decision set aside."

Declare Innocence

A Pfizer spokesman commented," We disagree with and are deeply disappointed by the verdict of the jury. There are still questions to be ruled upon by the trial court and we shall therefore not comment at this time beyond saying the charges against us in this case are unfounded."

The trial opened Oct. 23. The three firms were accused of entering into arrangements during

Bongos Greet Humphrey in Ivory Coast

Tour of 9 African Nations Begins With Hearty Welcome

ABIDJAN, Ivory Coast (AP) — Welcomed to the Ivory Coast today by the thump of bongo drums and barefoot girls dancing under a tropical sky, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey launched his 12-day tour of nine African nations.

Several groups of 50 to 100 well-wishers broke from the crowd of a thousand, pressed past airport security barriers and jostled around Humphrey, trying to shake his hand. He reacted in good humor.

Humphrey said before his takeoff from Washington Friday that he hoped to show Africans that America wishes Africa peace, progress and "human opportunity."

Share Aspirations

"Here, as elsewhere throughout the new Africa," Humphrey said at the airport, "people are building their nations by their own efforts and determining their own destinies. The people of the United States share your aspirations."

Principally, Humphrey has come to represent President Johnson at the inauguration of President William Tubman of Liberia Monday and Tuesday Tubman was re-elected last May for his sixth consecutive term.

Rugged Climate Tough on Bacon

BURLINGTON, Wis. (AP)— A Seattle man who says Washington's rugged climate is even too tough for the hogs was labeled world champion liar today by the Burlington Liars' Club.

"We live in a rugged part of the country," wrote S. A. Schilz in his entry in the prevaricators' annual derby. "Last year was very bad; hardly any feed. Result was our hogs were so lean we had to fry the bacon in butter."

The weather seems to bring out the best or worst in storytellers, depending upon your point of view.

Liars' club judges liked these examples and awarded honorable mention to:

L. A. McElhaney, Kansas, Ohio, who said "it rained so long and hard here in northwestern Ohio last spring that I wore out three sets of wiper blades in one week—and I never had the car out of the garage."

Mrs. Daniel Bell of Eau Claire, Wis., who said "this winter the snow in our back yard was so deep that when I hung the clothes on the line, I had to bend over."

James W. Darling II, Hilo, Hawaii, who quoted his father, stationed in DaNang, as saying that "the roads in Vietnam are so full of pot holes that one day during the rainy season he ran over a scuba diver in one of them."

For good measure, the judges commended Ralph L.Milligan of Dayton, Ohio, who said he "knew an artist years ago who painted a picture of a dog that was so realistic that the dog contracted the mange."

70 Marines Dead in Lowland Fight During New Year Truce

By GEORGE MCARTHUR
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Bitter marshland fighting that has killed 70 U. S. Marines and wounded 128 wore on past the start of the Viet Cong's unilateral New Year's truce today. South Vietnam announced it would extend to 36 hours the day-long cease-fire the allies plan to begin Sunday.

The Saigon government said the extension was being made in line with Pope Paul's appeal that Jan. 1 be observed as a "day of peace" throughout the world, but informed sources indicated it was also in response to a request from Washington.

The Marine casualties were announced today in delayed U.S. Command reports that told of grim new battles in South Vietnam's three northernmost provinces and massive air strikes to relieve the hard-pressed Leathernecks.

Air War

The war also continued unabated in the air over North Vietnam. The U.S. Command announced that Red ground gunners shot down a Navy F111 Phantom jet east of Haiphong Friday, but both crewmen bailed out over the Tonkin Gulf and were rescued.

The focus of the ground war was along the South China Sea coast below the demilitarized zone, where heavy clashes have flared and subsided since last Wednesday. Some battle reports from the field were being held up at U.S. headquarters on the request of local commanders whose units were still sparring with the enemy after the announced start of the Communists' truce period at 1 a.m. Saturday, local time.

Storm Village

The heaviest casualties came in a savage battle which raged Wednesday and Thursday and ended with the Marines storming the fortified village of Thon Tham Kee 410 miles north of Saigon.

The fighting with regulars of the 716th North Vietnamese Army regiment broke out when a landing group of about 1,000 Marines ran into about 300 of the North Vietnamese on the border of Thua Thien and Quang Nam provinces and were pinned down.

When the battle smoke subsided Friday there were 27 enemy known killed against the Marine's 48 dead and 81 wounded.

An almost equally lethal series of battles was raging Thursday near Hoi An southwest of Da Nang. A coordinated sweep by Marines, infantrymen of the First Cavalry Division and South Vietnamese—a force of several thousand men—ran into heavy Communist resistance.

Artillery Fire

The U.S. Command reported the Marines lost 19 dead and 25 wounded. The enemy casualties were listed as 33 dead plus 30 more believed killed by artillery.

Several thousand Marines and Vietnamese troopers maintained pressure today in Thua Thien and Quang Nam where the old imperial capital of Hue and the big base at Da Nang are located.

In the air war, heavy weather over North Vietnam again hampered American airmen and restricted available target areas.

Carrier-based Navy planes swept through breaks in the weather to pour bombs on supply points above Haiphong but the effort cost one Phantom jet.

The Phantom had gone in early to scout the weather and was flying relatively low over a seemingly peaceful island when ground fire suddenly opened up and set the plane afire. The crewmen nursed the plane over the water and bailed out—and were picked up a short while later by helicopters.

Congress Blamed For Medicare Rise

WASHINGTON (AP) — The leader of a nationwide citizens group says increasing the premium for the voluntary part of medicare means the nation's elderly are "having to pay for the failure of Congress to prevent the escalation of doctors' fees."

"It's disgraceful," said William R. Hutton, executive director of the National Council of Senior Citizens, which claims to be the largest organization of the elderly in the country with 2 million members in 2,000 affiliated clubs.

The increase from $3 to $4 a month, announced Friday and effective April 1, applies to the part of medicare which pays doctor costs. It was expected. The government contributes an equal monthly amount.

Limit Fees

Hutton's group has urged Congress to set limits on doctors' fees under medicare. But he said in an interview it hasn't been done because "the medical profession has an enormous political influence and Congress is afraid because it needs them (doctors) to run this."

Comment from the American Medical Association on the new rates was not immediately available.

Critics of medicare say it has a built-in tendency toward higher costs because doctors are free to charge "seasonable and customary" rates.

No Plans

Administration officials say they have no plans to ask for any form of fee-setting or limitation on fees.

An administration source said one reason it is not now considering fee schedules is that doctor's fees are not expected to rise even as fast as the cost of living next year.

And, he noted, some AMA leaders recently expressed concern about the increase in doctors fees.

"They know there's a lot of pressure" for a fee schedule, he said.

Holiday Hangover Remains Expensive

NEW YORK (AP) — Those New Year's Eve celebrations—and New Year's Day hangovers—will cost just as much and maybe more than ever this year, and, in most states, won't be slowed down a bit by the fact that 1967 ends on a Sunday.

Last-minute legislation and issuance of special licenses will permit the sale of liquor in many places where alcohol normally can't be sold on the Sabbath. Other places will sell only beer and wine until midnight, then switch to hard liquor.

Nightclubs and restaurants, particularly in the large cities, report a brisk reservation business, even at prices close to $100 per couple. Many have been sold out for a week or longer.

Bargain-hunting would-be revelers can still celebrate and save their pocketbooks too, however.

Special Consessions

In St. Louis, Mo., one place is charging only a $1-per- person cover for which favors will be provided. New Haven, Conn., celebrants can pay $16.50 per couple for a buffet dinner and a show. And for $17.60 per couple, Pittsburgh residents can get dinner, see a stage play and dance. They also can drink, thanks to a special law passed by the state legislature.

At the other end of the scale are clubs in the big cities.

The Persian Room in New York's Plaza Hotel has been sold out for two weeks at $40 per person for dinner and a show. The Rainbow Grill, overlooking midtown Manhattan from atop the RCA Building, offers dinner and dancing for $35 per person, tax and tips included. The same celebration last year cost $27.50 per person, but the figure did not include tax and tips.

Open 'til Dawn

New York City, which has no Sunday closing law, is issuing special permits allowing clubs to stay open until 8 a.m. Monday.

For those who are willing to brave the cold, there will be the traditional midnight lowering of a lighted ball from the Allied Chemical Co. Tower in Times Square. The city also has invited everyone to gather in Central Park for a gospel concert and post-midnight dancing under the stars.

Honolulu residents, who don't have to fear the cold, can celebrate outdoors by watching one of the many traditional fireworks displays on Waikiki Beach. Indoors, they can celebrate at places like the $30-per-person Hilton Hawaiian Village which has upped its price by $5 per person.

Middling Range

In-between the bargains and the top prices are numerous celebrations at rates averaging $20 to $30 per couple. A motel in Seattle, Wash., is offering a holiday party and two nights lodging for $55 a couple.

This will be the first Sunday New Year's Eve when Washington residents can drink. The State Liquor Control Board last August approved the sale of liquor from 2 to 10 p.m. on Sundays and from 2 p.m. to 3 a.m. when New Year's Eve falls on a Sunday.

Residents of Iowa weren't so lucky. Authorities promise they will enforce the state law which prohibits the sale of liquor between 1 a.m. Sunday and 7 a.m. Monday. Among other states which will be legally dry New Year's Eve are Delaware, Ohio, Maine, Alabama and Arkansas.

Some New Mexico night club owners have found their own solution to the no-liquor laws. They plan celebrations 24 hours early.

"We'll have a big New Year's Eve party," says one Albuquerque club owner, "only it'll be Saturday."

An early celebration also is planned in Miami where the traditional New Year's Eve festivities usually are highlighted by the Orange Bowl parade.

A city ordinance prohibits parades on Sundays so the celebration will be pushed up to Saturday night.

Former Leader Of Canada Dies

LONDON (AP)—Vincent Massey, 80, the first native born governor-general of Canada and brother of actor Raymond Massey, died today of pneumonia, a Canadian government spokesman said.

The diplomat and one-time chief representative of the queen in Canada succumbed at King Edward VII's Hospital for Officers. A niece said he had taken ill recently with what seemed to be a cold.

Massey became governor-general in 1952 and served for seven years.

Prospect of Bone-Chilling Cold For Packer-Cowboy Tilt Sunday

Prestige, Super Bowl At Stake

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

GREEN BAY (AP) — Green Bay shuld feel right at home Sunday with the prospect of snow flurries, bone-chilling cold and cutting wind for the National Football League title game between the favored Packers and the Dallas Cowboys.

Although the surface of Lambeau Field will be heated to 50 degrees by 14 miles of electric wiring beneath it, the temperatures in the rest of Packerland are expected to be in the middle teens by game time at 1 p.m. CST.

The rematch of last season's title game. which ended dramatically in a 34-27 Packer victory will be carried on network (CBS) radio and television with the Green Bay area blacked out on television.

Completed Work

Dallas flew in from the Southland Friday afternoon a few hours after the Packers completed their heavy work in another closed session. Both teams were to do little more than limber up until game time.

Vince Lombardi, confident of another fine performance by his Western Conference champs made no prediction.

"I just hope it is a good ball game," said Lombardi, whose Packers are shooting for an unprecedented third straight league playoff crown. "I'd like to win it. I'll be very much disappointed if we don't. Most of all, I'd like to see us play real well."

The big prize, in addition to the prestige of the NFL title and an approximate $7,800 winning share per player (the losers will get about $5,200), is a crack at the $15,000 Super Bowl jackpot in Miami, Fla. Jan. 14 against the American Football League champion. The Packers already know how sweet the Super dough can be, having beaten Kansas City last January in Los Angeles.

Containing Team

Summing up the differences between the defensive strategy of the two clubs, Landry said, "Green Bay is a containing team. They let you bend them a little with the run, but keep you away from the goal line. We try to shut off the run."

Both coaches expect Bob Hayes, the former Olympic sprint champ to be a more important factor than last year, when he caught only one pass.

"A guy like Hayes is going to catch some," admitted Lombardi.

"Anything Bob does will be an improvement over last year," said Landry. "He'll be more ready this time. He had a good year. When he didn't start well last year, Don Meredith looked elsewhere. I think he'll be aiming at Hayes a few times Sunday."

Grabowski, Wilson, Mercein All Want To Start Sunday

Lombardi Gives No Indication About Fullback for Title Game

By KEN HARTNETT
Associated Press Sports Writer

GREEN BAY (AP) — Packer coach Vince Lombardi faced a new fullback problem today. He has room for only one fullback in his starting lineup, and three say they're ready to play.

"I hope I play a lot," said Jim Grabowski as Green Bay neared the end of preparations for Sunday's National Football League title game with the Dallas Cowboys.

Grabowski has not started a game since injuring a knee Nov. 5. He didn't play last week when the Packers won the Western Conference championship by beating Los Angeles 28-7.

The starter that day was No. 3 fullback Chuck Mercein, who is hoping he will get another starting call Sunday.

Wilson Ready

But so is Ben Wilson, the No. 2 fullback, who is fighting knee and ankle injuries.

"I feel better than I felt in the past three or four weeks," Wilson said.

Lombardi was indefinite Friday about his starting fullback. Wilson, he noted, was limping and unless the limp disappeared would not play. Grabowski, Lombardi said, was running very, very well.

Mercein started and scored a touchdown against the Rams, but he also fumbled early in the game.

The New York Giant discard has one definite advantage over his fellow fullbacks. He has no ailments. He also has eagerness.

Make Contribution

"It's not so much the money," Mercein said. "What's important is just to be part of a great team and make a contribution."

Grabowski could provide a timely psychological boost should he start. Despite missing almost half the season, Grabowski led all Packer runners in yards gained.

"Grabowski will help them," said Cowboys coach Tom Landry. "If they get him back in there it has to give them a little boost."

But Grabowski needs an operation to repair damaged cartilage. His knee can fail him at any time. "It's just one of those things," Grabowski said. "It could go for a long time or it could pop out."

The threat of being displaced by either Grabowski or Mercein could serve as a goad for Wilson.

The ex-Ram was disbelieving when told that Lombardi said the limp must go before Wilson would play. "He didn't say that, did he?" Wilson asked.

Secure Future

Wilson could secure his Packer future with a big performance Sunday. Grabowski could salvage satisfaction from an otherwise heart-breaking season should he perform well.

And Mercein, who went from the Giants to the Westchester Bulls to the Washington taxi squad to the Packers in one dizzying season, could climax a stirring Cinderella story should he cash in on a starting shot.

Last year, Mercein watched the title game on television. "I never dreamed I would be involved in it in another year," he said.

May See Defensive Battle, Landry Says

Dallas Strategist Concerned More With Footing Than Temperature

By KEN HARTNETT
Associated Press Sports Writer

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Coach Tom Landry led his Dallas Cowboys into frigid Wisconsin Friday and said he expected a defensive ball game with the Green Bay Packers Sunday in the National Football League championship.

"I don't anticipate a 34-27 type game' said Landry. That was the score last year when the Packers captured their second straight NFL title, winning at Dallas.

"I think it will be a tougher kind of game, or else one side or the other is going to get out ahead and run away with it, as happens sometimes in NFL title games," Landry told a news conference.

The temperature in Green Bay Friday afternoon was 21 degrees. Readings in the mid teens are expected Sunday afternoon.

Landry said a difference between last year and now was the time both sides had to hone their offenses. Preparation period for the 1966 title game was two weeks. Both Dallas and Green Bay played last weekend.

Landry said he felt the Packers were as strong as they've ever been defensively, still had the same effective passing attack keyed to Bart Starr, and showed a good running game against Los Angeles in the Western Conference playoff last Saturday.

One player the Packers have who wasn't on the scene last year is rookie halfback Travis Williams. "He scares you a lot." Landry said. "He's explosive."

Williams set an NFL record this season by running back four kickoffs for touchdowns.

Asked if he planned to put the ball in the air on kickoffs, Landry replied, "If you're there Sunday, you'll find that out."

Cowboy's Star

Landry noted that Cowboy star Bob Hayes didn't have a good game against Green Bay last year—he caught only one pass for one yard.

"Anything over last year will be an improvement for him," Landry said. "He didn't start out well. Meredith threw to him a few times, then he started throwing to other people. He will be more ready this year than last. Sunday Meredith will be aiming at him a few times. He'll be more ready than he was last year."

Indifferent to Cold

The Dallas coach said the condition of the electrically heated playing field at Lambeau Filed would have more of a bearing on the game than the air temperature.

"I sure hope that the electricity doesn't go off," Landry said. "As long as the footing is good, I don't think the cold weather will make a difference other than in holding the ball."

The Cowboys plan a brief workout at Lambeau Field Saturday. The team is staying at a motel in Appleton, 30 miles south of Green Bay.

Vikings, North Park Clash For Holiday Tourney Crown

Lawrence '5' Downs Carroll; Milton Loses

BY JOHN L. PAUSTIAN
Post-Crescent Sports Editor

Lawrence University's hot-handed Vikings and North Park College's defending champions will clash at 9 p.m. today for the championship of the fourth annual Lawrence Holiday basketball tournament.

Lawrence fired floor-launched bulls-eyes at a 50.7 per cent clip (38 of 75) and sank free throws at a 77.8 per cent pace (28 of 36) in outlasting Carroll College, 104-90, in a dazzling opening-game offensive show Friday night.

North Park (Ill.) outclassed Milton College during the second half of the Alexander Gym nightcap to post a 79-54 victory.

Milton (2-4) meets Carroll (1-4) at 7 p.m. today for consolation honors.

The title battle between Lawrence (2-1) and North Park (5-1) looms as a "natural," since both exhibited cohesive attacks, strong shooting and forceful rebounding last night. The Clyde Rusk-coached Lawrentians, who now own a 5-2 record in the holiday tourney series, will seek to avenge an 84-69 loss to North Park in last year's opener. North Park now has a 3-0

Big 'E' Leads Houston

Warriors Lose in Tournament, 77-65

HONOLULU (AP) — Elvin Hayes set a championship bracket scoring record of 45 points as he led Houston to a 77-65 semifinal victory over Marquette Friday night in the fourth annual Rainbow Classic.

The Warriors moved out to a 7-0 lead in the first three minutes of play. With opening of the second half, Hayes hit on six consecutive baskets and added two more, giving the second-ranked Cougars a 59-45 lead. From there on it was a case of Marquette trying to break up the powerful passing attack of the Cougars.

Hayes' 45 points came on 22 field goals in 35 attempts, and one free throw in two efforts. He also was a standout on defense with 16 rebounds.

Luchini Hits 19

Top scorer for Marquette was Brad Luchini with 19 points.

Earlier, the University of Hawaii put on a late surge to beat submarine forces Pacific 86-79 in the consolation bracket.

Fred Smith of Detroit paced the Rainbows with 26 points, 12 at the free-throw line.

Subpac, ahead 49-47 at intermission, was led by Tom Newell of San Francisco with 17 points.

Steve Howell hit 32 points—a career high—in leading Ohio State's Buckeyes over Bradley.

Bradley Out Ten Days After Auto Accident

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Bradley, the New York Knicks' high priced rookie, was struck by an automobile late Thursday night and will be lost to the team for 10 days to two weeks.

Bradley, a two-time All American at Princeton and former Rhodes Scholar, suffered cuts and bruises to his left wrist, left ankle and right hip when struck by an automobile while crossing a street during a rainstorm.

The accident occurred near Madison Square Garden shortly after 10 p.m.

He was taken to St. Clair's Hospital for X-rays, which showed no fractures.

Team physician, Dr. Kazuo Yanagasawa said Bradley will be out of action at least 10 days.

East Tops Kimberly, Rockets Trim West

Free Throws Decisive in 65-56 Victory

BY RON WITT
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

KIMBERLY — Appleton East warmed up at the foul line while Kimberly turned colder from the floor than the snowy December night air outside, and the combination resulted in a 65-56 non-conference triumph for the Patriots here Friday night.

The victory was the Pats' second in as many tries over Mid-Eastern Conference competition, a 64-48 verdict over Kaukauna having been achieved earlier. The outcome left both East and Kimberly with 6-2 records for the season.

A close game that saw the score tied at 49-all with 6:23 left in the final period turned into a route in the next five minutes, as the Pats cashed in on 12 of 16 free throws. The Papermakers got plenty of opportunity to catch up but managed to connect on just four of 25 shots from the field in the last quarter for a shooting percentage of 16 per cent.

Biggest Lead

With 41 seconds remaining, East's Bob Meyer meshed one more gift toss to give his team their biggest lead at 65-51 and complete a 16-2 streak for the 5½-minute segment.

Kimberly's Wayne Swokowski notched a free toss and Jeff Wildenberg, the game's high scorer with 25 points, added two additional buckets to give the Papermakers their final total. Rick Stach had 16 points to pace the winners.

Of the rapid reversal of the game's pattern, a disconsolate Papermaker coach Jack Wippich pointed to the figures 4-for-25 and shook his head, saying: "I thought we were getting in good shots, but the idea is to put the ball in the basket. . . And then, that Jones — he doesn't miss a free throw."

"That Jones," 6-5 rugged center for the Patriots, did miss once from the free throw line but that was it. In all, he made nine of his 10 attempts at the charity stripe, including six of seven in the final frame. He also had three baskets to finish with 15 points for the night.

Jones gave East the lead at 51-49 with a brace of gift shots just after the Papermakers had rallied to tie from a 49-46 deficit at the 3-quarter mark. That was the last time the home club was as close as two points down.

Work Better

Kimberly had gone to a full-court zone-press, and the Patriots seemed to work better against it than the zone the Papermakers had used in the early stages. East was able to penetrate closer to the basket with some quick passing and subsequently drew a host of fouls.

A smiling East mentor Bill Morse commented afterwards: "It was fortunate that they went from the zone to the zone press. The minute they came out on us, we moved the ball better. I think they had a better chance with the zone."

Blaine Reichelt netted four straight free throws in the next 2:14, and with 3:29 left, it was 55-49. Swokowski then drilled a jump from the baseline, but Reichelt shoved in a rebound to match it.

Neenah Rolls To 73 to 55 Non-Loop Win

NEENAH — Neenah High School's good second half getaway coupled with Appleton High School-West's droughts, which failed to produce a point in the first 3:34 of the third stanza or the last 4:33 of the fourth, helped the Rockets to a 73-55 non-conference triumph here Friday night.

In moving to their sixth straight victory, the Rockets limited their Fox Cities neighbors to a dozen points in each of the last two frames. The total included only six field goals.

The Terrors only found the range once from the floor in final stanza but by making 10 of their 11 free throw chances decreased Neenah's 15-points spread to eight with 4:33 remaining.

From that point on, nothing would go through the rim for the visitors while the hosts padded their lead by scoring the last 10 points of the game.

West jumped into a 16-12 lead at the close of the first period and boosted it to 21-15 early in the second.

Neenah battled back to get a 21-all tie and later the count was knotted at 23, 24, 27 and 29 before Tom Kopitzkes' fielder with 1:43 left in the half gave it the lead for good.

Dan Blank added another two-pointer for the hosts and after Carl Hunt scored for West, Kopitzke and Blank repeated to give the Mid-Eastern Conference leaders a 37-31 advantage at the intermission.

The Rockets, at the start of the third period, kept going at the pace at which they ended the second and put in eight straight points before the Terrors got on the scoreboard on a field goal by Ade Dillion with 3:34 gone. By that time, Neenah had claimed a 45-31 lead.

The margin fluctuated from 10 to 14 points the rest of the quarter and the hosts went into the final eight minutes owning a 57-43 lead.

Chip at Lead

Neenah's lead was 60-45 early in the fourth period when the Terror free throwing began to produce. Tom Hintz, with a pair of gifters, cut the difference to 10 points (61-51) and after Lee Olson scored for Neenah, Hunt

Chuters Record 70-50 Win

EAU CLAIRE — Little Chute St. John's Dutchmen took advantage of a cold shooting St. Paul of the Hill (Minn.) and shot a fine 44 per cent from the floor to whip the Hillmen, 70-50, Friday evening and earn a berth in the championship game against Eau Claire Regis in the Eau Claire Holiday Tournament.

Regis dumped St. John's of Milwaukee in an earlier game, 80-59.

St. Paul held an early 8-6 lead over the Dutchmen before the Avitus Ripp-coached Dutchmen came to life. St. John held a 16-11 lead at the first quarter's end. The game remained close throughout the second period until the Dutchmen hit 10 points in a row to open up the game. At the half the Hillmen were down, 33-25.

Led by Oscar Schuler, the Dutchmen continued to pour on the lead. Little Chute scored 20 points in the third frame and held the Hillmen to 11 to increase their lead to 53-36.

Using substitutes in the final period Little Chute continued to increase the lead out-scoring the Minnesotans, 17-14 to end the game at 70-50.

Schuler paced the Dutchmen with a total of 19 points on eight baskets and three free throws. Gary VandeHey chipped in 18 points for the winners.

St. Paul was led by Gary Stanoch with 12 points.

Eau Claire Regis, the Dutchmen's foe tonight, was led by Tom McSorley with 32 points.

Bruins Notch 41st Win In Row; Hoosiers Upset By Lowly SMU Quint

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

UCLA's holiday feast is proceeding according to schedule—the Bruins continue to gobble up everything in sight but Indiana's once-promising menu has turned into a double helping of crow.

The top-rated Bruins made it 41 in a row Friday night, toying with St. Louis University 108-67 in the semifinal round of the Los Angeles Classic.

The poor Hoosiers, however, unbeaten and rated No. 3 when they landed in Dallas, Tex., for the All-Sports Association Tournament, suffered their second loss in as many games Friday.

And while the first defeat was administered by a strong Western Kentucky team, the last humiliation was a 91-84 consolation-round setback by Southern Methodist, which hadn't won a game in eight previous starts this season.

UCLA's game was strictly no contest—which of them is?—as Lucius Allen scored 28 points, Lew Alcindor threw in 26 and St. Louis spent all evening trying to solve a full-court press. The Bruins will meet Wyoming, which beat Iowa 94-87 in two overtimes Friday, in the tournament final tonight.

Surprise, Surprise

Southern Methodist's victory was as complete as it was surprising. The Mustangs took an early lead and never trailed, though Indiana tied the score once in the last half. Bill Voight scored 25 points, Gary Sibley had 23 and Lynn Phillips 21 for SMU, while Joe Cooke topped the Hoosiers with 30.

The All-Sports title went to Western Kentucky, which beat California 96-85, while in the consolation round in Los Angeles, fourth rated Tennessee, beaten for the first time by Iowa Friday night, found some solace in a 78-68 victory over Southern California.

In the Far West tournament at Portland, Ore., fifth-ranked North Carolina squeezed past seventh-rated Utah 86-84. The Tarheels will meet Oregon State in the final tonight as the Beavers edged Washington State 62-61.

Winning Basket

North Carolina trailed all the way, by as many as 17 points in the second half, but tied the game at 84-all on a layup by Larry Miller with a minute left. Charley Scott won the game with a basket with just eight seconds left.

In the Sugar Bowl tournament at New Orleans, La., a final between eighth-ranked Davidson and ninth-rated Vanderbilt was set up for tonight.

Davidson ran into some stalling tactics from Memphis State, but prevailed 51-44 with Mike Maloy scoring 15 points and performing well under the boards.

Vanderbilt trailed Michigan State by a point at the half, but came on strong to win 73-63. Tom Hagan scored 24 points for the winning Commodores, and Lee Lafayette had 25 for the Spartans.

45 for Big E

Second-ranked Houston advanced to the final round of the Rainbow Classic in Honolulu, beating Marquette 77-65 as Elvin Hayes scored 45 points and pulled down 16 rebounds.

In the All-College tournament at Oklahoma City, Okla., Brigham Young beat Virginia Tech 97-64 to move into the final round against Oklahoma City, which beat Auburn 78-68.

Georgia won the Triangle Classic at Raleigh, N.C., beating North Carolina State 62-56 and Army edged Yale 50-49 in the consolation round.

Calvin Murphy scored 41 points in leading Niagara to a 113-82 victory over Valparaiso and into the final of the Motor City tournament in Detroit against Detroit, which beat Portland 80-69

Nobody Seemed Too Enthusiastic about grappling for the basketball during this first period action in Friday's non-conference game between Neenah and Appleton West on the Rocket court. The Terrors' Tom Hintz (53) appears to be matching Dan Jankowski (40) and Dale Magedanz (52) for possession. Appleton's No. 35 is Carl Hunt. West had scoring droughts early in the third and late in the fourth periods and the Rockets took advantage of them for a 73-55 triumph. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Michigan Rips Wisconsin '6'

Badgers Lose, 8-0, Face Spartans Next In Big 10 Tourney

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)— Michigan blitzed Wisconsin, 8-0, Friday night to move into the Saturday night finals of the Big Ten hockey tournament against host Minnesota.

Michigan State trounced Ohio State, 7-0, in a consolation game and will play Wisconsin for third place.

The Wolverines' Lee Marttila riddled Wisconsin's outmanned Badgers with four goals and two assists to lead the rout. His first goal came with the game only 2½ minutes old, and Michigan kept up the barrage. Doug Galbraith added two goals and two assists for Michigan, while Garney Pashak and Randy Binnie got the other Wolverine goals.

Wisconsin goalie Bob Vroman had to stop 52 shots in addition to those which got past him. Michigan's Jim Keough was credited with 43 saves.

Easy Win

Michigan State whipped in four goals in the opening five minutes to rout Ohio State.

Wayne Duffett's goal with only 30 seconds elapsed set the tone for the Spartans' rout of the Buckeyes. Then Nino Christofoli, Bob De Marco and Nelson De Benedet added goals before five minutes had elapsed. Chuck Phillips' goal gave MSU a 5-0 first-period lead, and Dout French and Pat Russo added goals in both the second and third periods.

The Spartans peppered two OSU goalies with 41 shots in addition to the seven goals. Bob Johnson, MSU goalie, had to make only 16 stops.

8 Wisconsin Teams Win in Tourney Action

Championships Won by LaCrosse, Eau Claire Quints

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Eight Wisconsin college basketball teams posted victories in holiday tournaments Friday night—two of them sewing up championships. Five Badger state teams were beaten.

La Crosse ripped Ripon 115-88 in the finals of the La Crosse Holiday tournament and boosted its season record to 5-3. Leading La Crosse to the title were Joel Hafner with 22 points and Mike Granger with 18. Loras of Iowa, paced by Charles Von Feldt with 31 points, won the consolation honors 89-76 over Western Illinois.

Eau Claire posted a 102-99 triumph over Chicago State and wrapped up the Winona State Invitational Basketball tournament in Minnesota. Jim Severson had 30 points for Eau Claire, while Sylvester Coleman netted 32 for Chicago, which pulled within one point at 100-99 in the closing minute of the hard-fought game.

Beat Elmhurst

Grabbing a third-place crown in the Monmouth, Ill., Holiday tourney was the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, with a 92-73 triumph over Elmhurst. Leading the winners, now 7-3, were Chet Edwards with 22 points and Dexter Riesch with 19. Defiance of Ohio won the tourney title with a 76-56 crushing of the host school.

Opening round action saw Platteville gain the finals of its Pioneer tournament by beating Ohio Northern 98-82. Kentucky State edged Upper Iowa 88-83 for the other finals berth. The title will be decided tonight.

St. Norbert's of West De Pere, Wis., was humbled 122-71 in a consolation round of the Granite City classic at St. Cloud, Minn., and will play for seventh place among eight teams tonight. Rockhurst, Mo., set a fieldhouse scoring record in crushing the Wisconsin school.

Superior blew a 19-point lead but hung on for a 106-101 victory over Iowa Midwestern in the Superior Invitational's first round.

In the Beloit Holiday tournament, Carthage beat the host school 98-80 and Stevens Point defeated Macalester of Minnesota 79-70 to gain the finals.

Top Point Total in 3 Seasons

'Jays Roll to 91-62 Win

MENASHA — Rolling up its largest point total in coach Barry Ewald's three seasons here, Menasha High School ripped New Holstein, 91-62, in a non-conference game Friday night.

In upping their record to 5-3 and posting their initial victory over the Huskies in three tries, the Bluejays extended a 13-point halftime advantage to a 31-point bulge at the close of three segments.

The Menashans, usually at a height disadvantage, were able to rebound with the visitors, use their fast break effectively and often pick up two - shot fouls while driving in for layups.

Without Top Scorer

New Holstein played without its leading scorer John Kramer, a 6-6 pivotman, who was out of the state, and Gary Lautenschlager, another regular, who was ill.

In all, Menasha made 43 trips to the free throw line, as the visitors committed 28 fouls, sinking 23.

Ewald's forces shot well from the floor, netting 34 of 72. They were only a shade under 50 per cent, on 27 of 55, going into the last quarter but the percentage slipped on a 7-of-17 in that frame.

New Holstein hit 24 of its 70 field goal attempts and batted 50 per cent from the free throw circle on 14 of 28.

46-33 At Halftime

The Twin Citians commanded a 21-16 edge at the close of the first period, boosted it to 10 points halfway through the second and, then after New Holstein trimmed it to seven, garnered a 46-33 halftime lead by making the last six points of the frame.

Hitting 13 of 21 from the floor and netting 15 straight points at one juncture, the Menashans vaulted into a 74-43 lead at the three-fourths mark. They rolled up a 28 to 10 edge in the quarter.

With reserves in action, the margin remained in the neighborhood of 30 points most of the final frame and the victors might have hit the century mark but missed 10 of 13 free throw attempts.

Tim Gressler led the Bluejays with 24 points, the club's top individual performance of the season. He made 10 of 13 gift shots. Others in the double figures were Kevin Conway with 14, Terry Noeller 13, Ron Haack 11 and Brad Schliem 10.

Bob Ausloos topped the Huskies with 17 points. Dick Dudarenke added 12. The latter and starter Joe Braun fouled out in the third quarter.

Shiocton had dropped an earlier encounter to the Bruins by a 70-69 verdict.

The Chiefs shot to a 43-24 halftime bulge and then blistered the nets for 36 points in the third canto to hold a 79-35 margin.

Four Chiefs scored in double figures with Dan Gast taking game scoring honors with 26 points. Gary Johnson scored 18, Marly Conradt 16 and John Schmidt 13 to aid the Shiocton cause.

put in two more free shots, making it 53-53 with 4:45 remaining. The Rockets' Dan Jankowski was assessed his fifth foul on the play.

Neenah was tagged with a traveling violation and a few seconds later, Hunt was fouled again and lowered the spread to 63-55 with a pair from the line. The clock showed 4:33 left to play and as it turned out, they were the last two points to fall through for the Terrors.

Except for the big difference of nine field goals on the plus side for the Twin Citians, most of the statistics were similar. The Rockets had 58 field goal chances, making 27, while Appleton tried 54, but connected on only 19. Only six of 26 split the nets in the second half.

Both clubs made 199 free throws, Neenah in 26 attempts; West on 25.

Blank took Neenah scoring honors with 18 points. Dale Magedanz added 17 and Olson and Jankowski hit 12 apiece. Hintz had 17 and Dillon 16 for the Terrors. Hunt also made it into the double figures with 11, including seven straight free throws.

Both Hintz and Magedanz were tagged with three fouls with more than five minutes to play in the second quarter but neither garnered any more.

Birds' Blair Okay After Surgery On Injured Ankle

BALTIMORE (AP) — Surgery was performed Friday on the right ankle of Paul Blair, center fielder of the Baltimore Orioles.

The surgeon said he repaired the tear in torn ligaments and removed a bone fragment from the ankle joint. He termed the operation a success and said Blair would remain in the hospital about a week.

Blair is expected to wear a cast about six weeks and then start six weeks of therapy which would make him late reporting for spring training.

Blair injured his ankle Tuesday night, sliding home while playing in the Puerto Rican Winter League.

Pro Loops Have to Contend With Option Clause—Rozelle

GREEN BAY (AP) — Professional football has no legal weapon to keep players from jumping between the two major leagues after playing out their options, says commissioner Pete Rozelle.

But both the American and National Football leagues will soon have an arrangement to assure just compensation for the team which loses a player to the other circuit, Rozelle said.

Such an arrangement is already in effect within, but not between, the two leagues.

Rozelle, in Green Bay to check on preparations for Sunday's NFL championship game, spoke at a news conference Friday before flying on to Oakland for the AFL title game there Sunday.

Best Possible Deal

Rozelle noted that once a player becomes a free agent after his option expires, he is free to make the best possible deal for himself.

"If we were to say you can't go, the player can turn around and ask, 'Well then, what's the option?' You have to let them go . . . There's only one way to stop them, and I won't permit it. It's blacklisting."

Rozelle said an arrangement would probably be implemented soon to assure compensation for the time and money a team invested in the player's development.

At least three NFL players reportedly played out their options this season. They include Leroy Kelly of the Cleveland Browns and George Mira and Dave Parks of San Francisco.

Mira reportedly would like to sign with the Miami Dolphins of the AFL. One rumor has Kelly, one of football's top running backs, headed for the new AFL franchise in Cincinnati.

Spahn Winner In Court Fight

Ruling Places Ban On Publication of Pitcher's Biography

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Warren Spahn, one of baseball's all-time great left-handed pitchers, scored his second straight victory Thursday in New York's highest court. For the second time in 14 months, the Court of Appeals sided with Spahn in his effort to block publication of an unauthorized biography of his life.

Spahn, who won more than 300 games while pitching for the Boston and Milwaukee Braves, had argued that the book "The Warren Spahn Story" was not an accurate portrayal of his life.

The high court, as it did the last time, upheld a lower court order granting him an injunction against publication of the book and a damages award of $10,000 against author Milton Shapiro and the publisher, Julian Messner, Inc.

Backed Contention

The Court of Appeals in its original decision, in October 1966, had upheld Spahn's contention that the book was filled with "factual errors, distortions and fanciful passages."

But Shapiro and Messner appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court and won an order directing a retrial of the case in the light of a U.S. Supreme Court decision in another case holding that "reckless falsification" must be proved in such instances.

In Thursday's decision, the Court of Appeals held, 4-2, that the facts in the Spahn case met the test prescribed by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Green Bay Paper Tries to Rankle Cowboys, Dallas Fans

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Green Bay Press-Gazette bought a page of advertising in the Dallas Times Herald Friday for a little psychological warfare before the National Football League title game Sunday.

It will be the second meeting of the teams in two years for the championship. The Packers beat Dallas last year 34-27 and the Press-Gazette headlined the advertisment, "Thanks, Cowboys, we'll have another."

Beneath two steins imprinted with stories of Green Bay's title victories was this poem entitled, "A Toast to Cowboy Fans:"

May you happily prosper in the forthcoming year.
May your children's growth bring you great cheer.
May your mortgage and troubles immediately cease.
Such be you life that your mind is always at peace.
And wherever you may be throughout our great nation.
Please share the Packer fans' New Year's Eve jubilation.

Eagles' Brown Issues Play Me or Trade Me Request

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Philadelphia Eagles running back Timmy Brown has issued an ultimatum to team officials—either use him as their key running back or trade him.

Brown, one of the Eagles all-time great backs, was plagued with injuries in the 1967 season.

"I would like to help the Eagles become a winner," said Brown. "But if I'm not going to be used, then I'd rather be traded. I'm a running back, and I have to run."

Brown, who has gained 3,703 yards rushing and 3,346 as a receiver in eight seasons with the Eagles, carried the ball only 53 times this year and gained 179 yards in seven games.

U.S. Four-Man Biathlon Relay Team Wins Test

Canadians Fall In Old European Olympic Game

UPSON, Wis. (AP)—The United States four-man national biathlon relay team beat the Canadian winter Olympic biathlon squad Friday in a special match race near this Iron County community.

The biathlon, an old European event which only recently has come to this country, consists of a cross-country skiing and rifle shooting. It has been a part of the winter Olymics since 1960.

The U S team covered the course in 55 minutes, 9 seconds, while the Canadians took 91·6.

Spots on Team

The American team consisted of athletes who will compete Sunday through Tuesday here for spots on the U S. Olympic squad for the games beginning Feb 6 in France They were Ralph Wakley and Bill Spencer, both of Salt Lake City, Jay Bowerman of Eugene, Ore., and John Ehrensbeck of Old Forge, N Y. Bowerman had the best time with 17·48 for his leg of the relay.

The Canadians, who already have been picked for the Olympic games, were George Ede of Quebec, Jim Boyde of British Columbia, George Rattai of Ontario and Esko Karu of Saskatchewan. Karu was their fastest—with a 19:41 time.

The U.S. Olympic biathlon squad will be chosen by Tuesday night.

Round-About Trip to Appleton

Meredith Sees No Problem With Outlook for Cold Weather Sunday

BY JIM HARP
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Quarterback Don Meredith of the Dallas Cowboys, who is a good-sized hulk of humanity, even in his street clothes, hardly had time to set his suitcase down as he arrived at his motel room here when he had a long distance telephone call.

After finishing his conversation, Meredith turned to the press corps and photographers who had edged their way into the room and asked: "Well, what's next here?"

The Cowboy ace signal-caller was asked about the Fox Cities weather and promptly offered: "It's not too bad, I've played in cold weather before and there should be no problems."

"Even in the southwest we get cold weather, you know, and when it gets down to 30 degrees there it's really cold because its a different type of cold."

Don Meredith

Don, who has picked up the tag of the "Dandy' in Dallas, indicated he was anxious to see how the electrically heated turf at Lambeau Field would work.

"Speed makes us go," he offered "and about the only thing that could hurt us would be if our speed was reduced because of a wet or sloppy field.

"It's been important to us to get back in the championship game and we're happy it's against Green Bay. That's the way it should be," the quarterback added.

Cowboy Lee Roy Jordan was not impressed by the weather, particularly the snow which swirled around the Holiday Inn on Highway 41 where the team is staying.

"It's not too cold," Jordan said "in fact its better than I thought it would be. We had snow in Dallas the other day but of course somebody said that Coach Tom Landry ordered that special."

Jordan said the flight from Dallas to Green Bay by jet took the team about two hours and was "a good trip."

After arriving in Green Bay, part of the Dallas official party was taken by bus to downtown Green Bay where the National Football League has set up headquarters.

The remainder of the 72-person party, made up chiefly of team members, the coaching staff and other club officials came to Appleton.

Some of the Cowboys were amazed that it took only two hours to come from Texas and then better than hour-and-a-half to get the 25 miles to Appleton.

As it turned out, the player-bus was taken on a tour through downtown Appleton before being taken to the motel.

Cowboy assistant general manager said: "We were wondering what was going on, but it was all right."

Meredith probably explained the sentiment of the players best when he talked of the round-about trip.

"All I saw was Lawrence University, the rest of the time I was sleeping and besides the windows were too fogged up."

A visiting newsman got a round of laughs when he asked Meredith if he ever had played against Lawrence.

CV finished four games ahead of Log Cabin and Techlin's. Fourth place went to Home Tavern (71-55). Then came Reiland's (61-65), Skunk Hill (52-74), Stammer's (41-85), and Twelve Corners (38-88).

record in its local tourney appearances.

Lawrence's Vikes, who featured superbly-balanced scoring (all five starters and reserve Karl Hickerson attained double figures), dissipated a 13-point first-half lead to trail by two early in the second half — but roared back to win by 14.

Lawrence, in avenging an early-season, 2-point loss to Carroll, led for the final 18 minutes of the contest. A lay-up by Bob Townsend broke the final tie (54-54).

Townsend, 6-foot-4 junior, gave a classic second-half performance while carrying a heavy foul burden. Charged with his fourth foul with 1:58 left in the first half, Townsend played the final period as if he didn't have a worry in the world. He southpawed eight straight shots through the hoop to power the Vikes' 56-point second half.

Townsend finished with 21 points, the runnerup total to Mike Andrews' 22. Andrews played a role similar to Townsend's during the first half, as he rifled in seven of nine shots to provide the team's early impetus.

Brian Bock showed game-long consistency, as he contributed 20 points to the cause.

Guard Don Brooke, who pulled the Vikes out of danger with three straight baskets after Carroll had closed to within two points (76-74) midway in the second half, was almost as hot as Townsend in the final 20 minutes. He swished four in a row at one stage — including a couple of spectacular efforts — and made five of six, over-all, in the second half, en route to a 14-point total.

Sinks First 4

Big Brad Childs, who drilled his first four field attempts of the game, totaled 12 points. Hickerson, in a strong relief role, recorded 13 points, including 7-for-7 from the foul line.

Carroll also did some impressive shooting in matching the Vikes' field goal total. The Pioneers made 38 of 89 floor tries, for 42 7 per cent, and 14 of 20 from the charity line (70 per cent). Carroll's Bob Jankowski took scoring honors for the night, with 24 points, while teammate Tom Collopy added 21.

The Pioneers never led in the first half. Lawrence broke from 2-2 and 4-4 ties to barge ahead by as much as 13 points (26-13 and 28-15). But Carroll found the range and gradually wiped away its deficit. Tom Birk sank a corner shot with six seconds left in the half to create a 48-48 tie.

In the first 12 seconds of the second half, Collopy's baseline shot gave Carroll its first lead in the game, 50-48. The teams traded baskets until Townsend's short jumper forged a 54-all tie.

Townsend then snapped the deadlock and put the Vikes ahead for good.

The first 15 minutes of the North Park-Milton game betrayed no evidence of the kind of "laughter" it was to become for the Illinois-type Vikings. The score was knotted 11 times, before Dale Peterson converted a fast break into a 30-28 lead with 5:40 left in the first half. Dan McCarrell-coached North Park never trailed again.

The game remained close, however, at halftime (with North Park leading, 38-33) and in the first three minutes of the second half. Then, with North Park leading by four (43-39), the out-of-staters reeled off six straight field goals — two by Peterson, two by Ecker, one by Jim Carroll and the other by Paul Rockwell) to break the game open (with a 55-39 lead). North Park gained excellent position inside the Milton zone defense for most of its points during the spree.

In a 7-minute span, North park outscored the Wildcats, 21 to 4, to open a 61-41 advantage.

Calumet Jury Ruling Upheld By High Court

Precedent Set in Negligence of Lead Vehicle in Crash

In affirming a Calumet County Circuit Court jury ruling Friday, the Wisconsin Supreme Court may have established a precedent adding new areas of liability in traffic accidents.

Its decision left lead, or preceding, vehicles in line of traffic accidents vulnerable

The case stemmed from an accident April 30, 1964, on U.S 10, a half mile east of the highway's east intersection with State 114 in the Town of Harrison in which Mrs. James Diener, 310 S. Main St., Brillion, was injured.

Mrs. Diener was a passenger in a car driven by her husband and was in a funeral procession heading from New Lisbon to Brillion. When the lead car in the procession stopped for an oncoming school bus, the hearse, driven by George Hare, New Lisbon, slammed into it.

Avoided Hearse

Diener, following the hearse, swerved to avoid hitting the hearse and swung his car sharply onto the shoulder The car missed the hearse but hit a mail box shattering the car windshield Mrs Diener was injured when the car swerved sharply and when the windshield shattered and sought damages.

Defendants in the Circuit Court trial were Diener; his insurance company, Mid-Century Insurance; Hare, and his insurance company, Heritage Mutual. The jury awarded Mrs Diener $6,750 plus costs and found Hare 40 per cent negligent even though his vehicle, the hearse, had no contact in the incident

Heritage appealed the decision and the case was argued before the high court Nov. 27. Robert Lutz, Chilton, represented Mrs Diener.

Retried on Old Charge

Freed Youth Pleads Innocent

OSHKOSH — A 17-year-old Menasha youth, one of two Twin City teens who were released recently from the Wisconsin State Reformatory on the famed Gault Decision, pleaded innocent Thursday to the charge which netted him the prison term 3½ years ago.

The youth appeared before Judge Herbert Mueller, the presiding juvenile judge at the original hearing on April 27, 1964.

The youth was charged with stealing a mini-bike when he was 14 years old. He was sent to the State School for Boys at Wales by Judge Mueller After serving time at Wales, he returned to the Twin Cities. Last summer he was sent back to Wales for violating his parole. When he ran away from the school, he was sentenced to the Green Bay Reformatory

Released

Two months ago, an attorney secured the youth's release from the reformatory on the Supreme Court's Gault Decision, which holds that juveniles must be informed of their constitutional rights and right to attorney.

Since the youth now has pleaded innocent to the theft, he will again face trial before Judge Mueller on Jan. 9 in Oshkosh.

The same teenager appeared before Judge James Sarres, the present juvenile judge, on Wednesday on a charge of robbing an elderly Menasha man of $1,000. He pleaded innocent to the count, and the trial will be held in juvenile court on Feb. 28 in Oshkosh.

To Parents

The youth, who has been released to his parents pending the trials, allegedly robbed Louis W. Reinke, 205 Garfield Ave., at the 76-year-old retired man's home on May 2.

The second Twin City youth freed on the Gault Decision, which has resulted in about 70 releases from the Green Bay reformatory in the past few months, will appear before Judge Sarres next Wednesday.

180 Landings More Yearly

Poll Says Long Runway Would Hike Port Use

A nationwide survey of corporations owning aircraft requiring 7,000 foot runways has indicated that at least 36 of those companies would use Outagamie County Airport approximately 180 times a year if runway facilities were adequate.

The survey was conducted last year in an effort to determine potential use of the airport.

The total does not include the Kimberly-Clark Corp. which has indicated it will base its corporate aircraft at the Outagamie County field if runway and navigational aid facilities are improved

108 Companies Reply

Survey questionnaires were mailed to 326 companies with 108 replying. Forty-seven firms indicated their business would not require them to use the county airport and 25 said they could not estimate the use.

Of the 36 companies indicating use if 7,000 foot runways were available, the Peavwy Co Airmotive Operations of Minneapolis, projected the greatest number of landings, 20.

Other firms which indicated multiple landings here were Northern Natural Gas Company, Omaha, Neb., 15; U. S. Rubber Co., New York; Ashland Oil and Refining, Ashland, Ky. and International Milling Co., Minneapolis, 12 flights each.

Project Total

Reading, Service, Inc., Reading, Pa., and Signal Oil and Gas, Los Angeles: projected an annual total of 10 flights each. Estimates of other firms ranged down to one flight annually to this area.

At the present time, most of those firms must land at either Green Bay or Milwaukee.

Proposals now before the county board would increase the effective length of the northeast-southwest runway to 7,000 feet.

Property Privately Owned

It was explained that all property within the boundaries is privately owned by the petitioners with the exception of a cemetery and town potter's field, and that only those property owners who will benefit would be taxed. The rest of the town was not affected.

Attorney William Engler, Chilton, explained that the new development would have 213 residential lots, a 250-unit resort motel, 80 unit town houses, plus a golf course and clubhouse

The water and sewage facilities are necessary for the project development and pollution control.

Engler said the developers were platting lots and that the facilities would be needed for residential use within five years

Course Ready in 1969

The golf course and clubhouse will be entirely complete in 1969 and the motel is scheduled to open in the spring of 1970

The group was not opposed to others joining the district, "but we have to get something started," Engler said

Clarence Perry, representative of the engineering firm of Perry Carrington Corp., Marshfield, explained there would be enough water to serve 1,000 persons besides providing adequate fire fighting protection.

A well and a sewage disposal system are being proposed. Perry indicated the disposal system could be small at first since some lots may be purchased soon but not built on for 10 or 15 years.

Urges Joint System

James L Lissack, regional director of the Department of Resource Development, Green Bay, stated it would be "beneficial to the area to combine a system for Sherwood, High Cliff Inc., and High Cliff State Park" and said officials should "make every effort to provide a single sewage facility"

Oscar Egger, district public health engineer of the Division of Public Health and Social Services, Fond du Lac, echoed Lissack's remarks, adding, "Attempts should be made to unite facilities"

The three groups met recently in Chilton and engineers for the projects were asked to look into the matter. High Cliff State Park is presently interested in services for the lower park area.

The new district will be known as the High Cliff Sanitary District.

Defensive Spray Proving a Fizzle, Sheriff Complains

"Rebuff," the policemen's friend in a can — which is supposed to bring big, strong aggressors to their knees — doesn't, according to Outagamie County Sheriff Norbert J Marx

Marx told the county Law Enforcement Committee Friday that he brought several cans of the pressurized chemical spray several months ago because it was supposed to be effective in "de-mobilizing" persons who charge policemen with intent to assault or resist arrest.

Marx told the committee that the chemical was used by a policeman at the county fair last summer — with good results.

The sheriff added that the chemical is in a small can, making it easy to carry in a uniform pocket. And, Marx said, the chemical cost only $1.95 a can, while similar items on the market today are in larger containers and cost about $10.

Supposed to Stir

Theoretically, the policeman being attacked has only to draw his can of "Rebuff," aim at his assailant's face and push the small button The yellow-brown spray that is emitted is supposed to cause a stinging sensation, especially in the eyes, and should stop the pursuer in his tracks

Marx told the committee this morning that in a couple of recent instances, things didn't happen that way. The attackers kept attacking and stronger measures had to be used.

Marx whipped out his spray can this morning and shot some of the fluid onto his hand He held up his wet hand and told committeemen that there was barely a sting.

Impressed, the committee told Marx to look into buying some other type of "de-mobilizing" chemical that is more effective.

Supv. John R. Schreiter of Appleton asked Marx if the use of the spray chemical was completely legal. Marx said it's use is condoned by the courts.

"Besides," Marx said, "it's more humane than splitting a head open with a night stick."

In other committee business today, the committee:

— Said it would not consider purchasing two-way radios for conservation warden cars. Marx said he was asked by local wardens to request the county to consider purchase of radios, on the county police band, for warden cars because many times wardens can be of help to police. The committee said there was no money in the budget now for the radios, which would cost about $600 each. Warden radios are on the state police band.

Talks Concern Details of Airport Lease for Firm

Kimberly-Clark Corp attorneys and consulting engineers met with Outagamie County officials and the airport committee Friday to work out details and wording of the proposed lease for the Neenah firm to move its corporate aircraft to Outagamie County Airport and the contract for engineering work on the hangar building.

No final agreement was reached, however. An announcement of the pending move is not expected to come until after the lease agreement is reached.

All of the improvements required at the airport to accommodate the jet aircraft owned by Kimberly-Clark have been recommended by the county's executive committee and will be submitted to the county board Jan. 9.

This includes installation of an instrument lading system (ILS), which is being recommended at county expense, and lengthening the northeast-southwest runway to 7,000 feet.

The verdict was handed down about 5:30 p.m. Friday. Sentencing was set for Jan. 22.

Hephner, who also is awaiting sentencing for a $13,000 robbery at a Withee, Wis. bank in April, 1965, could be sentenced to a term of up to 30 years on the Iowa charge The rural Chilton man, arrested by Keokuk County, Iowa, authorities following an incident at a farmhouse near here Nov. 8, has been in jail under bond since his arrest.

He has been in jail here, under $5,000 bond, since his apprehension in Green Bay, Nov. 17. Both men have court-appointed attorneys from here.

Two Shots Fired

The Hephners had been charged with robbery with aggravation after two rural Sigourney farmers reported the night of Nov 8 that two men had tried to rob them at gunpoint. There were at least two shots fired during a struggle between the two bachelor farmers and their assailants

Raymond Hephner was captured at the scene and a warrant issued for his son a short time later Iowa authorities said that the two farmers subdued Raymond Hephner inside their farmhouse, but his companion fled through the rear door.

Raymond Hephner was found guilty Nov. 21 on two counts of abduction and one count of bank robbery Trial on that charge was held in Federal Court at Madison.

Riverside Paper Reveals Pollution Abatement Plan

A $300,000 stream pollution abatement program will be launched next summer and carried through 1969 by The Riverside Paper Corp.

Harry Davis, president of the Appleton-based firm which manufacturers diversified paper products, said today the action as to meet the new water quality standards proposed for the Fox River.

He said the firm would spend $150,000 for anti-pollution equipment during the coming year to curb pollution from the firm's No. 2 machine.

And in 1969 an additional $150,000 will be expended to obtain and install the same type of equipment for the No. 1 machine.

Additional Treatment

The equipment will give additional treatment to the water used by the firm which is deposited into the Fox.

"Actually, we have been removing more pollutants from the Fox River water than what we put back," Davis declared.

Davis said plant technicians have been keeping extensive records, along with active participation in various industry, regional, state and federal conferences aimed at minimizing pollution.

"As a corporate citizen of Appleton and the Fox Cities region, Riverside Paper stands ready to do everything possible to meet the new standards that have been proposed," Davis said.

Peak Days

He disclosed that on a peak manufacturing day, the mill has taken in and deposited close to 1.9 million gallons of water back into the river.

Davis explained the river water is channeled through the firm's water filtration plant, and on peak days, an estimated 6,000 gallons of solid waste has been extracted. He said on an average day the solids run about 5,200 pounds

Davis said the firm is putting about 2¾ pounds of solids back into the river per every 1,000 gallons of water

(It takes 13,464 gallons of water in the production of one ton of paper.)

He pointed out that under the proposed Fox standards, not more than a half pound of solids can be returned to the river per 1,000 gallons of used water.

Davis said when all the pollution abatement equipment is installed the standards would be met.

Machine No. 2 will be the first to have the equipment installed because it manufactures colored construction paper used in schools across the country.

"We have been getting what you might call an asthetic pollution dye in the river," Davis said. "From a visual standpoint it's not too good but does not produce a problem as do the solids in the river."

Davis said the dye was traced from the point where it is deposited into the river and disappears about one-tenth of a mile downstream

"It's not as harmful as the eye would lead a person to believe but we feel it is a situation that should be eliminated," Davis said, adding that the firm receives a couple of inquiring telephone calls a month. He said the firm answered the complaints with straight explanations.

Davis said there was a short period in which a color paper chemical had been used to produce yellow color base, but its use was immediately discontinued when federal researchers informed the industry that it was a possible cancer producing chemical.

"I tell about this incident so the general public knows we are constantly on the watch, along with the industry and government, for anything that may be harmful to our waterways and people," Davis said.

He pointed out that extensive surveys are made on a continuing basis to insure that paper-coloring dyes being used in no way can impair health.

"We are 100 per cent behind stream pollution abatement programs and intend to do our part," Davis said. He hinted of additional expansions and modern equipment purchases, also, in connection with the firm's expansion and modernization program.

Riverside Paper has a new plant under construction on Appleton's southside. The firm's administrative offices are at 800 S. Lawe St.

Riverside has extensive plans for updating the facilities at the existing mill.

8 Applicants Eliminated for County Position

Sheriff, Committee Screen Process Server Possibilities

Eight of 19 applicants for the recently-created post of Outagamie County process server were eliminated Friday afternoon at a meeting of the county board's Law Enforcement Committee.

Several of the eight applicants who were eliminated by committeemen and Sheriff Norbert Marx Friday were 45 years old or more. Marx indicated that he desired men under that age, because in addition to the process server duties, the man would be required to fill in on investigative and general police duties. The applicants ranged in age from 21 to 59.

Narrow the List

The committee instructed Marx to review the remaining 11 applications and narrow the list down to "about five," by Jan. 12. The committee then will act on final stages of the hiring

In other business Friday afternoon, the committee:

—Agreed to let Marx proceed with plans to raise the pay for deputy assists with prisoners to more than the present $5 per day. Exact pay figures were not discussed.

—Heard that steps are being taken to put a special heavy duty screening over jail cell windows to help prevent escapes.

Jingo Discusses 'Alum,' Star Colleen Dewhurst

Actress Once Wrote School Play for Downer College, Now Part of Lawrence

BY JINGO

When Eugene O'Neill's last surviving unfinished play, "More Stately Mansions," opened to generally unfavorable reviews from New York critics, actress Colleen Dewhurst was unperturbed.

Jingo

It is her nature to care a little less about critics' views. In "More Stately Mansions," Miss Dewhurst had no reason to feel badly about her press notices; in fact, some reviewers contended she stole the scene from Ingrid Bergman, who was making her Broadway return after a 21-year absence. That is no easy task.

Colleen's success in the ill-fated production which has since been cancelled on Broadway (but is set to open in Europe soon) caused a bit of happiness in the Fox Cities, because some persons consider her a Lawrence University alumnus.

In truth, Miss Dewhurst conceivably might not know where Appleton is because she attended Milwaukee Downer College long before it was affiliated with Lawrence; about two decades ago.

One Year at Downer

Jingo would be curious to know Miss Dewhurst's feelings about her days at Downer, which were limited to one year. It seems, according to The New York Times' Rex Reed, that Colleen was so bossy she wrote and directed the school play, and when she got fed up with the girl playing the lead, she kicked her out and played it herself.

The dean wrote to her mother, suggesting that life was an endless party to which Colleen had been the only one invited, and begged for her removal from the halls of ivy in her second year."

Perhaps Colleen wasn't quite so bossy as she was independent and searchful of artistic expression, which she later realized many times; mostly on stage. After leaving Downer as per mutual agreement, she took various jobs (elevator operator, dentist's receptionist, gym instructor teaching fat women how to shape up, in Gary, Ind.

Stars Climb Upward

In 1948, she started the slow climb to stage success, which hit big for the first time in 1957 with the Circle in the Square production of "Children of Darkness."

In addition to being her first real "break," the play gave her the opportunity to meet an unknown actor who was given a part that Colleen had recommended for someone else.

Husband-Husband-Husband

The unknown was George C. Scott, who later became her husband, then later became her husband, and even later became her husband, and finally became her husband. It's not really that confusing: Colleen and George C. have been divorced and remarried three times.

People joke about her various marriages to Scott, and mention has been made that her laugh is one of the all time greats. Others may interpret her indifference to reviewers as snobbishness. But Jingo defies anyone to find clippings or persons contending that Colleen Dewhurst is anything short of a great actress. And that includes many Lawrentians.

Actress Colleen Dewhurst is shown above in her role in "The Crucible," when it was appearing on Broadway. The actress formerly was a student at Milwaukee Downer College before it merged with Lawrence College to become Lawrence University.

Orange Bowl Parade Top Feature

BY TV SCOUT

6:30-7:30 (Channel 5) — Live coverage of the highlights of the annual Orange Bowl Parade is one of tonight's top features on The Kind Orange Parade Jamboree. The combination of bright lights with nighttime backgrounds, shimmering floats 50 in all, high stepping bands, Florida's loveliest young ladies, singers Aretha Franklin and Georgia Gibbs all add up to sizeable enjoyment. Raymond Burr and Anita Bryant are the commentators. (C)

6:30-7:30 (Channels 2-7) — There's a bit of happy reunion on The Jackie Gleason Show as the Great One introduces his special holiday guest, Frank Fontaine. The rest of the show is an all-star package including Milton Berle, Kate Smith, Louis Armstrong plus Bert Kaempfert and comic Jerry Colins. (C)

7:30-8 (Channel 5) — Bernie Kopell as KAOS chief Siegfried is all over the place on Get Smart trying to make hay from a desperate CONTROL search. (C)

7:30-8 (Channel 2) — Robbie and Kate show how fully their new marital status has matured them on My Three Sons when they agree to chaperone a weekend party in the mountains for Chip and his friends. (C)

8-8:30 (Channels 2-7) — The total situation on Hogan's Heroes is in danger tonight when a top Gestapo officer becomes aware of the whole operation and Allied headquarters orders the boys to escape to England. (C)

8-10 (Channel 5) — "Something Wild" is more like something mild on Saturday Night at the Movies. It stars Carrol Baker who has bitten off a role too big for her to chew. She plays a girl who is an assault victim and is so disturbed by the experience that she attempts suicide.

8:30 - 9:30 (Channel 11) — When Dave and Ben are deputized on Iron Horse, they are determined to do the job assigned them by a dying sheriff, getting an outlaw to trial. (C)

9-10 (Channels 2-7) — Mannix starts with a simple con game situation at a luxurious health spa and winds up involved in several other crimes and a romance, as well. The spa offers some fine photographic potentials which the show uses well and which are mighty welcome, making up for the lack of story. (C)

State Economic Growth Stumbles

MADISON (AP) — Wisconsin's economic growth faltered in November following more than three straight months of modest gains in most areas, the Department of Industry, Labor and Human Relations reported Thursday.

Seven of the indicators used to measure economic activity showed gains during the month, the agency said, while ten marked definite declines and one was unchanged.

Employment gained slightly but was offset by rising claims for jobless benefits.

Improvements also were recorded in average weekly hours worked and worker earnings, but new incorporations and bank debits fell significantly.

All eight Wisconsin banks reporting to the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago reported decreases in bank debits over October totals.

HINTS FROM Heloise

Dear Gals:

I can't tell fortunes or even read your tea leaves, but there's one thing I'm certain will happen on New Year's Day. . .and that's football!

Honestly, sometimes I wish I was a football coach so I could call time out in my house. Do you know last year my husband and his friends had three T.V. sets going in our living room — all at the same time!

Heloise

But, thank heavens, judging from your letters last year I have plenty of company.

Just listen to the tale of woe from some of the wives who wrote to me:

"All I hear on New Year's Day is football games. The kids and I have to tiptoe like angels through the wheat fields — or is that clouds?"

"Does the New Year have to start with football?"

"If I could only be stricken stone deaf on January the first!"

"When my husband holds up one finger in front of his lips, that means be quiet or keep the kids quiet. When he holds up two fingers, he wants more peanuts and snacks. When I see three fingers, he is ready to eat a leftover turkey sandwich. . ."

"And all the while we are standing in the kitchen looking at the leftover turkey bones, dried-out dressing, cold gravy, all the dirty dishes, the Christmas tree which has yet to be taken down and wondering how we are going to make it through next week. Ugh!"

"What does a woman, who doesn't understand football, do on New Year's Day? I can't stand it."

But I guess most of you have all heard similar complaints before. This has gone on for years and will continue to. So I figure that the best thing we gals can do is have some fun of our own! Why don't you do something special?

Why don't you all get together at someone else's house and catch up on that hand-sewing you haven't had time for, alter hems, play cards or just visit?

Or pile the kiddies in the car and go to a movie. How long since you've done that?

Leave those dishes and forget about all of the stuff that has to be put away, cleaned up and exchanged. It'll be there tomorrow! Enjoy New Year's Day doing something that will give you pleasure. Remember, that ole graveyard is full of women who never took a day off.

Bless all husbands. I hope they enjoy all those football games.

As for us wives, do have one thing to be thankful for. It'll be another 12 months before it rolls around again!

Thank goodness. . .

Heloise

Dear Heloise:

My sisters and I all have bangs and my mother usually cuts them for us.

She used to cut them with plain scissors but it made the bangs blunt. So she tried using pinking shears and it worked much better — gave them a "feathery" look.

Now she cuts them this way all the time.

De'Ann Jones

Dear Heloise:

Here's a neat trick I use on trips which my husband thinks is great:

I always take along my iron and two bath towels (the hotel or motel ones can be used if you forget your own towels).

When ready to press a blouse or dress, I spread out the towels together, drape them over my closed suitcase, opening it just enough to tuck the ends of the towels inside. Then I iron on top of the suitcase! Works perfectly as a makeshift ironing board.

Viola and Earl K.

Dear Heloise:

Does your husband wear white socks because of a perspiration problem, or just because he likes them?

If you want him to wear dark ones for dress (which of course is proper), just buy him the white "footlets" that ladies wear under golf and tennis shoes. They come in large sizes, different styles and materials.

Have him wear black socks over these and no one will be any the wiser. (Just be sure to take them out of the package so he won't know he's wearing women's socks!)

Your Problems

It's Not Too Late for Girl Who Learned Lesson From Errors

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a teen-ager who is not writing for advice. It's too late for that. I am writing in the hope that you will print my letter for other teen-age girls who think putting out is the sure way to hang on to a boyfriend.

Bill and I started to go steady on my 16th birthday. It wasn't long before we were doing a guy she proves it by holding nothing back." My theory was, "This is the way to make him mine. It will keep him from going with other girls because if I fill all his needs he won't want anyone but me."

After six months Bill began to act as if I was a burden to him. He started to complain because I complained when he went to the hockey games with his buddies. He said I was trying to own him and he couldn't stand a girl who was bossy. So we broke up. Then I learned he had been seeing another girl behind my back. I also learned he had told a few of his "good friends" about some of our private moments.

If any of you girls wonder what it is like to give in to your boyfriend I can tell you in a few sentences. The few minutes of pleasure are soon replaced by terrible feelings of guilt. You walk around scared that you might be pregnant. You pray for forgiveness but you have a feeling God isn't listening because you have failed Him so many times in the past. You wish you could stop, but you're afraid your boyfriend will leave you if you refuse him, and you couldn't stand that because by now the guy is your whole life. Then one day he gets tired of you and you lose him anyway. And who do you lose him to? A girl who knows how to say "NO." — Too Late For Me

Dear Too Laet: Thank you for sharing your bitter experience in the hope that it might help someone else. And now, if you have learned something from it, it will not have been a total disaster.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: For the past 10 years my husband has been too sick to work. I never leave him for more than an hour during the day. Since I do all my own housework I am plenty busy. Once a week my husband and I go to a movie together or we play bridge. This is the extent of our evening socializing.

I don't want to give the impression I am a martyr. My husband is a pleasant person and I don't resent having him around all the time. We have been happily married for 22 years and I hope God gives us 30 more.

The problem is this: I love to play Mah-Jongg and I get invited to play about three evenings a week. I have two teen-agers at home so my husband is never left alone. He always puts on a long face when I leave. Do you feel I should pass up these Mah-Jongg games to please him? — Miami Mrs.

Dear Mrs.: Ordinarily I would not advise a wife to leave her husband three evenings a week but since the man is at home 100 per cent of the time, that's a lot of togetherness.

I say you are entitled to crack, bam and dot three evenings a week if you want to, dear. And may every hand you pick have at least 10 flowers.

Sympathetic Partner Is Consolation

A sympathetic partner is worth his weight in gold. "You couldn't possibly make that hand," North remarked after the play of today's hand. "Unless you happened to think for two seconds before you started to play it."

Opening lead — ♠ 3

Declarer took the first trick in dummy with the king of spades and tried a finesse with the jack of clubs. West took the queen of clubs and returned the queen of spades to South's ace.

South led the ace of clubs, but East's diamond discard was a bitter blow. When South led hearts, West stepped up with the ace, cleared the nine of spades out of the way, and led the six of spades to give East two spade tricks. Down one.

North's comment was unfair. It takes much more than two seconds to find the best line of play. See if you can work it out before you read on.

Take Ace

South should begin with the two black aces and then lead the jack of diamonds to dummy's queen to lead a second club from dummy.

If East follows suit South plans to finesse. He is sure to win at least five club tricks as long as East can follow suit twice. The defenders can take one club and three hearts at most, and then South has tricks to burn.

When East shows out on the second round of clubs, South steps up with the king of clubs, pashes the top diamonds and leads a heart. The only chance now is that West has the ace of hearts. When this turns out to be so, declarer gets two spades, one heart, four diamonds and two clubs. When you can take your nine tricks you don't need sympathy from your partner.

Daily Question

As dealer, you hold: S- Q 9 6 5 H- A Q 10 7. D- 7. C- Q 10 8 6. What do you say?

Answer: Pass. You count 10 points in high cards and 2 points for the singleton, but this is not even an optional opening bid. Change one of the black queens to a king, and the hand is close; change both queens to kings, and you would bid.

Thai Sailors' Kin Get False Reports

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — The Royal Thai navy is investigating phone calls to relatives of Thai navy personnel serving in Vietnam falsely reporting they had become casualties.

The Bangkok Post said navy wives and relatives were receiving mail carrying similar messages.

The Royal Thai navy said the phone calls and letters appeared to be the work of "subversive elements" aimed at demoralizing the navy.

A navy spokesman said the callers may be the same persons who distributed propaganda leaflets to navy personnel in Vietnam calling on them to desert their ships.

Secret CIA Support of Private Bodies to End

WASHINGTON (AP) — The post-war era of secret financing of private organizations by the Central Intelligence Agency ended officially at midnight Sunday. What will follow is still a problem for the new year.

The State Department announced Friday that, in line with the recommendation of a special panel named by the President, covert CIA funding of overseas activities of some private educational and voluntary groups "will in every instance be discontinued prior to Dec. 31, 1967."

"At the time of termination of support," the State Department announcement added, "some of the organizations received contributions to tide them over the period required to develop new sources of funds."

As in the past, press officer Robert J. McCloskey refused to name the organizations getting Central Intelligence Agency help. He has said only a "very small" number among more than 1,000 private groups engaged in overseas activities received CIA aid

To disclose their names "would not be in the national interest and might jeopardize their chances of developing new means of support," he said.

President Johnson named the panel and picked Undersecretary Nicholas Katzenbach to head it last February amid the row over disclosures of long-time CIA assistance to some student and other nongovernment organizations engaged in overseas activities the government deemed useful.

CIA chief Richard Helms and John W. Gardner, secretary of health, education and welfare, were the other members of the Katzenbach committee which now formally goes out of existence.

The problem of future funding for the private organizations has been handed to the larger committee under Secretary of State Dean Rusk. This group of prominent persons in and out of government has been meeting for months without arriving at a conclusion.

The Rusk group is slated to convene again in January. Proposals before it range from stopgap congressional appropriations to the creation of a public-private corporation to hand out grants.

The purpose of such continuing aid would be, in the State Department's words, to provide "public funds openly for the overseas activities of organizations which are judged deserving, in the national interest, of public support."

Strike Blamed for Auto Production Decline

DETROIT (AP)— Automotive News reported Friday that auto production slumped by 13.84 per cent this year compared with 1966.

A 50-day national strike of Ford Motor Co plants accounted for much of the drop.

The industry publication said calendar-year production was 7,413,422, down from last year's 8,604,726 cars. It was the lowest production since 1962.

5 Visits Planned By Mrs. Romney

MADISON (AP)—Mrs. George Romney, wife of Michigan's governor, will visit five Wisconsin cities in January, in support of her husband's bid for the Republican nomination for president.

Mrs. Romney's itinerary, announced Friday, listed these stops:

Jan. 8—Green Bay, rally at 8 p.m.

Jan. 9—Milwaukee, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, 10:30 a.m., opening of Romney headquarters at noon; Kenosha, opening of headquarters 2-3 p.m.; Madison, rally at 7:30 p.m.

Jan. 10—La Crosse, reception, 10 a.m.

3 Drug Firms Found Guilty

the period from 1953 to 1961 to produce and distribute broad spectrum antibiotics in violation of the Sherman law.

During the trial the government prosecutor said Pfizer and Cyanimid realized "enormous" profits on the antibiotic called tetracycline.

Sale Price

When the cost of manufacturing 100 capsules of the drug ranged from $1.59 to $3.87 for the two companies, he said, each sold that quantity of tetracycline to druggists for $30.60 and the consumer's cost was $51.

In addition to the three firms, the indictment obtained by the Justice Department in 1961 also named the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp, whose drug making arm is Squibb, and the Upjohn Co as co-conspirators but not defendants

The prosecutor said the cited companies agreed to limit the manufacture of tetracycline to the three defendants and sale of the drug to the defendants and co-conspirators with all sales by the parties to be at substantially identical prices

Attorneys for Pfizer held that the drug price was arrived at independently by the firm and was not the result of any conspiracy.

Meridian, Miss., Case

7 Klansmen Sentenced In 3 Rights Slayings

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Seven men, among them a Ku Klux Klan leader, have been sentenced to federal prison terms for conspiring to violate the civil rights of three young men slain in rural Mississippi more than four years ago

Samuel Holloway Bowers Jr., 42, imperial wizard of the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and Alton Wayne Roberts, 29, a former night club bouncer, were sentenced Friday to 10 years imprisonment by U.S. Dist. Judge Harold Cox Cecil R. Price, 29, chief deputy sheriff of Neshoba County where the three were killed, and Billy Wayne Posey, 31, employe of an oil distributor at Philadelphia, the county seat, drew six-year sentences.

Three-year terms were given to Horace Doyle Barnette, 29, now living near Shreveport, La.; Jimmy Arledge, 30, a Meridian steel firm employe, and Jimmie Snowden, 34, a Meridian laundry driver.

All plan appeals of their Oct 20 convictions by an all-white jury at Meridian. The Justice Department brought the conspiracy charges under a Reconstruction era law which provides a maximum penalty of 10 years and a $5,000 fine. No fines were assessed.

Bonds allowing them to go free while appeals are made were set at $10,000 for Bowers and Roberts, $6,000 for Posey and Price, and $3,000 for the rest

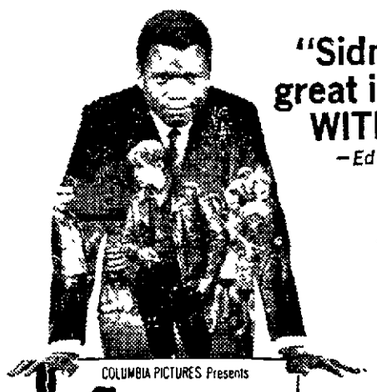

Cox said the sentences were indeterminate and parole could only come on the recommendation of a federal parole board regardless of time served.

The bodies of civil rights workers Michael Schwerner, 23, and Andrew Goodman, 20, both white and of New York, and James Chaney, 22, a Meridian Negro, were dug from an earthen dam on a farm near Philadelphia 44 days after they disappeared on June 12, 1964. They had been shot to death.

The Paradox in Our Asian Policy

One of the paradoxes of the current conflict in Asia is the Republic of China now entirely limited to the island of Taiwan and a handful of small islands off the mass of mainland Red China.

The Republic of China is second only to Japan in Asia in its economic health. Despite the virtual invasion of the island by several million mainland Chinese after the defeat of the Nationalist armies, a history of little progress on Taiwan itself and political antagonisms between the Chinese in control and the native Taiwanese, the Republic of China has thrived. It was helped to its current economic situation by considerable amounts of American money but it has been able to dispense with most American foreign aid. It has what is reported to be one of the best trained and able military forces in all of Asia.

It is luring foreign investment because of the stable condition of its government. Although its government is authoritarian, it has been able to ease some regulations and make some moves toward more democratic regimes. Cities elect their own government and the Taiwanese are mayors of every major city except one. The government also recently appointed a Taiwanese, the popular Henry Kao, as head of the Taipei municipality.

And of all the Asian nations, the Republic of China supports most fervently the American policy of containment of Red China and military opposition to the Communists in Vietnam. But there never has been any seriously taken suggestion that the fine Republic of China military forces be used to support us militarily in Vietnam.

The main reasons are political although not always immediately apparent. In its effort to present a picture of a modern state with the democratic aspirations such a modern state is expected to assume, the ROC has played down its military strength. In recent months its leaders have even suggested that the return to the mainland — the insistent dream of ROC officials — may be a political, rather than a military matter. The reported and continued unrest in Communist China naturally lends appeal, and credibility to this approach.

But the people on Taiwan generally lead a hard life of what still is individual grinding poverty. Even to those who share the desire to return to the mainland, it would be hard to sell the idea that the way lies through Vietnam.

But another political reason simply reflects a truth about Asia that is hard for Americans, used to ideological concepts, to realize. The Chinese are feared and in many cases hated by the peoples of many other Asian nations. In part this is the result of the current trend toward nationalism so that the people of most Asian countries suspect those of other nations. The Koreans, fighting so ably in Vietnam, are not liked at all by some of our other part-time allies in the Pacific and probably not by the South Vietnamese either.

The Chinese in particular have so consistently formed communities in other countries and have stayed together so remarkably well that they raise suspicions. They have been amazingly successful economically in many Asian nations where the natives have neither the interest nor the background for financial progress. And the Chinese are hard indeed to get rid of. It took Burma more than 15 years to have remnants of Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist troops air-lifted out largely at American expense. The recent Dyak massacres in remote areas of the Indonesian jungle were not aimed at Chinese Communists but at the Chinese of whatever ideological persuasion.

"Unleashing" the forces of Chiang Kai-Shek in South Vietnam would be bound to harden Cambodian opposition, raise Laotian fears of Chinese domination, force the Philippine government to withdraw its offer of a handful of more troops, and set off a new wave of demonstrations in Japan. It would provide an excuse for both Pakistani and Indian reaction against the American side in the war and would raise vast fears that it was the first step in an American sponsored move back to the mainland for the Nationalist Chinese.

The situation is worth a considerable amount of study and thought on the part of the United States government. Certainly our firm backing of the Republic of China on Taiwan and the presence of our Sixth Fleet kept the Communist Chinese from expansion in that direction. We have helped the Nationalist Chinese to help themselves, to build a viable economy and work toward higher standards of living for both Taiwanese and Chinese on the island.

But the able military force we helped to create and which we help to maintain is of no use to us whatsoever now that we could use some assistance.

Taxes for Private Schools?

Many privately endowed colleges and universities of the United States are in trouble. That their sister institutions in Wisconsin are also worried about their future ability to maintain their programs was shown when the Wisconsin Association of Independent Colleges and Universities sent its leading men to Madison recently to discuss, gingerly but nevertheless realistically, the prospect that their survival may ultimately depend on some form of partnership with the public treasury.

Dr. Clifford Lord, who will be remembered in Wisconsin as one of the most effective of the former administrators of the State Historical Society, and is now the head of Hofstra University on Long Island, a private school with an enrollment of about 12,000, put the issue well in a keynote speech at the Wisconsin conference.

"Traditional income sources such as endowment and corporate and alumni gifts are rising, but costs are rising faster. This leaves us with tuition. Tuition is rapidly approaching the point where only the very wealthy can afford to attend private institutions. We cannot let this happen, and we can't afford to let any educational institution go out of business."

"State subsidization is the answer," he concluded bluntly, and although some of his listeners among the private school officers of Wisconsin were noncommittal, it was clear that the idea did not appear as radical or dangerous to them as it would have appeared to their predecessor administrators a few generations earlier.

The private college has been a vital part of the evolution of America. Some of the distinguished private schools of Wisconsin were known across the land long before the University of Wisconsin or its sister state university system had won academic recognition. The church relation upon which many of the independent schools were established has gradually loosened, or disappeared altogether. Dr. Lord is quite right when he says that limiting enrollments to the sons and the daughters of the wealthy would be perilous to those schools as productive institutions in a democratic society He feels that direct subsidization of the institutions as private corporations is probably inevitable, if many of them are to be saved.

We are not so sure, although we bow to his superior acquaintance with the problem and his own professional qualifications as a distinguished educational administrator. In Wisconsin two years ago the legislature, after careful concise consideration, acknowledged the financial dilemma of the private schools, and the financial problems of those students who want to attend them, by contriving a system of state grants-in-aid to worthy students to compensate for the rising tuition charges at the institutions of their choice. That was a long step away from the tradition of literally independent private schools. But it served the welfare of the students, as it served the interest of the state. Those students thus enabled to enroll in a private school represented a net gain to the state treasury to the extent that they were therefore detoured from the increasingly costly tax-supported campuses. It may be that such reasoning will ultimately be extended to permit grants to the schools themselves, as is now being suggested. For an educational "mix" is one of the most desirable goals of the times, and will benefit the schools as well as their students.

Geography Lesson

A Milwaukee editorial colleague recently commented with annoyance mixed with amusement about the inability of commentators in the eastern metropolitan press to distinguish among the states in this distant part of the country that they persist in regarding as a kind of amorphous frontier where geographical identity is not yet quite settled.

Well, it has happened again. The thoroughly respected Christian Science Monitor, one of the distinguished journalistic products of New England, advised its international readership the other day that a "Wisconsinite" is seeking the nomination for president of the United States on the Democratic ticket. The mistaken reference, of course, was to Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota The reason, we must suppose, is that the name of McCarthy in association with Wisconsin became so familiar during the earlier career of the late Joseph McCarthy that such errors creep into the writings of even the most careful editors quite unconsciously.

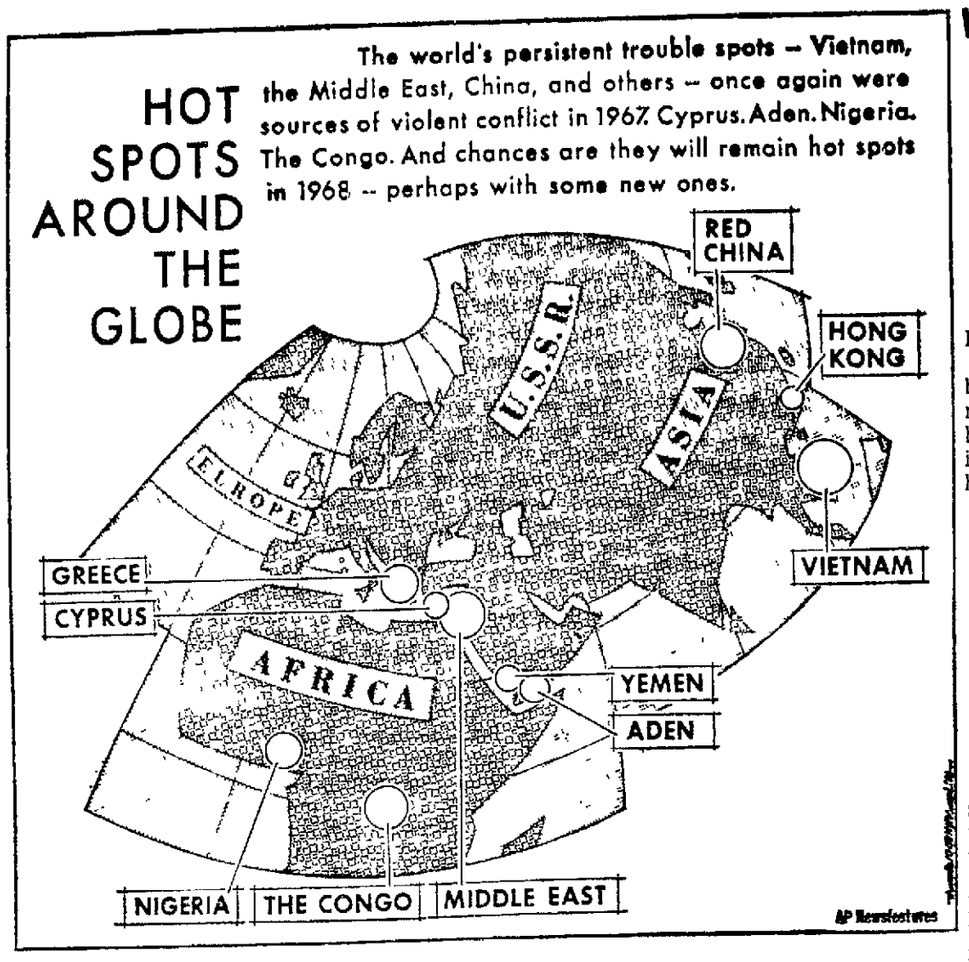

The late Sen. McCarthy of our own state, deceased these ten years, would no doubt derive a wry amusement out of the episode. The Minnesota candidate has held office for more than a decade and a half, is fairly prominent, and probably is also privately discomfited by the mistaken identity with a former congressional colleague with whom he had little in common and stood in vigorous ideological conflict.

Owner Pays to Junk His Car

ALTON, Ill. (AP) — A "disposal fee," tacked onto the purchase price of every new automobile, has been proposed by an officer of the Illinois Auto Salvage Dealers Association.

Larry Goddard, the association's executive director, told a meeting of affiliated organizations of the National Auto and Truck Wrecking Association that the Illinois association is conducting a survey and study project under a federal grant.

The project, "Illinois Auto Salvage Waste Pollution Control," has the blessing of the Office of Solid Wastes, Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Future Doesn't Look Too Bright

Asia, Vietnam, Middle East World Trouble Spots in 1967

BY TOM HOGE
Associated Press Writer

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Trouble erupted in more than a dozen countries this year, but violence centered in Asia, where the Vietnam war ranged on, and in the Middle East, where bloody fighting exploded between Arab and Jew.

In Vietnam, where U.S. forces now outnumber those who fought in Korea, the fighting continued to escalate as the United States steadily added new bombing targets in the North and ground fighting spread in the South.

Violence reached Korea as northern infiltrators crossed the border in greater number than any time since the Korean War and engaged in bloody clashes

FORCE 'CONFESSIONS'

In Communist China, Red Guards went on a rampage early this year, dragging Chinese leaders from their homes and forcing them to "confess" their errors. Soon British and other diplomats were being manhandled and full-scale battles were reported throughout the country.

Despite trouble at home, the Chinese Reds found time to harass British authorities in nearby Hong Kong with strikes and terror attacks.

For the third time in two decades, Arab and Israeli armies battled in the Middle East. In six days the war itself was over, as Israel overran Egypt, Syria and Jordan. But the issue of Israeli withdrawal from these areas, an end to Arab belligerency and the future of 1.5 million Arab refugees remained in dispute and will probably take a long time to settle.

In early November, airports and military installations in Greece lay under blackout. In Turkey, navy crews set sail aboard destroyers for the coast of Cyprus On the island, Greek and Turkish Cypriot forces piled sandbags atop their fortifications. The war preparations were triggered when Greek Cypriot troops attacked two Turkish Cypriot villages, killing 24 defenders. War was finally averted when President Johnson's emissary, Cyrus Vance, and other peacemakers persuaded the disputants to hold their fire.

GREEK KING FLEES

In Greece, the trouble came to a head last April when a group of colonels seized power and set up a military dictatorship. King Constantine was kept on as a figure head although he made plain his distaste for the junta. In December, Constantine, supported by part of the army, attempted a countercoup, but it was quickly crushed and the young monarch fled to Rome

In December, Britain said a relieved farewell to South Arabia after 128 days of troubled rule terminated by a year of skirmishing in which 56 British soldiers and 300 Arabs were killed. When the Arabs were not shooting at Britons, they were fighting among themselves In Aden, not even 10,000 British troops could prevent fighting between the National Liberation Front and the Front for the Liberation of Occupied South Yemen.

CIVIL WAR IN YEMEN

Yemen was wracked by continued civil war between the republicans backed by Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser and the ousted royalists backed by Saudi Arabia. Events took a new turn in November when Yemen President Abdullal Sallal was toppled. The overthrow encouraged the royalists to step up their attacks as Egyptian forces finally began pulling out.

In the volatile Congo there was new violence as white mercenary forces under Col. Jean "Black Jack" Schramme announced their intention of overthrowing President Joseph Mobutu. But Schramme lacked the manpower to carry out his plan.

Nigeria, Africa's most populous nation with some 55 million people, became embroiled in civil war also. It began when rebels in the breakaway province of Biafra proclaimed themselves a nation and went to war with the federal army of Nigeria. Each side is estimated to have about 50,000 men under arms.

Thus, as 1967 draws to a close, old persistent trouble spots remain thorns in the side of world peace — and portend still more ill news for 1968.

Wisconsin Report

Farms Decrease but Farm Interest Still Is Strong in State

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — That the numbers of farms and farmers and rural residents in general have been declining for some years is widely known. Occasionally, however, there is provided some evidence of the precipitate character of the trend that is mildly astonishing.

Wyngaard

Thus the other day the State Department of Agriculture reported, apropos a report on a new round of dairy cattle disease testing that the number of dairy herds in the state has fallen below 70,000. The precise figure in September was 69,981.

Fifteen years ago the number of dairy farms was nearly double that total. When this reporter started his work in the statehouse press gallery there were nearly 200,000.

The decline is not absolute, of course. The revolution in technology has affected agriculture as all other phases of human life. The individual farmer can produce more food and fibre today than a half a dozen of his ancestors could and with less effort. Although the dairy farmer is the symbol of Wisconsin agriculture, there are other farm producers. The diversification and constantly growing efficiency of the agricultural economy is everywhere visible.

MOST RESIDENTS URBAN

Yet it is a fact that cannot be blinked at that Wisconsin is no longer a rural state Perhaps seven out of 10 of its inhabitants can now be classified as urban

All of which has meant that public policy in this state, and the nature of the political parties and their purposes, have been modified significantly since grandfather's day when the rural elements of the Wisconsin community ruled supreme. Even as recently as a quarter of a century ago, partly because of malapportionment of the Legislature, there was no more confident or secure interest in Wisconsin politics than the farmer and his business.

But not now. Thoughtful farmers and their leaders are now viewing their changed political status realistically, recognizing that in an open conflict with the city resident, the farmer will be defeated on the political front. One of the meaningful developments of recent months has been an increasing disposition of farm organizations, and notably the big producer cooperatives to shed the nonpolitical character they upheld so insistently for years

MUST HAVE ACTIVISTS

As a minority interest in the body politic, some of the cooperative leaders are saying, they must become political activists, or risk being smothered altogether in an urban-led state political system.

There was the highly publicized example of the repeal of the yellow oleo embargo law a few months ago over the determined resistance of the farm community in general. There have been other examples. They will be followed by others, not only in economic matters, but perhaps in rural government organization, schools, roads and other public facilities vital to the rural resident.

Yet, as this reporter attempted to show when he was invited to discuss farmers and their politicial impact before a representative group of farm leaders recently, the question is not as bleak as it sometimes appears. There is the concept of "agri-business", perhaps an awkward word, but nevertheless a descriptive one.

MANY ARE INVOLVED

Although there are only about 120,000 active farmers remaining in Wisconsin, the farm service, supply, distribution, processing and hundreds of related enterprises are kindred interests. Counting all of the employes in the infinite variety of such enterprises, about 40 per cent of Wisconsin residents gainfully employed have a stake in agriculture and its health.

There is also the fact that tens of thousands of men and women who have come to the city remain rural-oriented in their hearts, including, undoubtedly, your correspondent. One of my friends has lived in the city for four decades, but he talks about alfalfa as the true urbanite raves about golfing. The farm interest remains a more important factor in Wisconsin affairs than some farmers know.

Public Pays for Parochial Schools in Arizona Section

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Educators and parents agree that the main focus of education should be on the individual needs of the child. With this in mind, all of us in Appleton should have a genuine concern for providing quality education for all youngsters. The community stands to benefit greatly from the investment made in a "top-notch" education for its junior citizens Certainly, children enrolled in parochial schools should be included in our community concern for quality education for all.

Up to now the parochial schools of Appleton have educated a substantial number of our youth But the squeeze is on! The factor of lay teachers, salaries alone makes the future of parochial education as we now know it and support it an impossibility for the future.

In one section of Arizona they solved the problem in this manner:

1. The parochial schools are leased to the public school district for the entire school year. (Except for one period a day which is used for the teaching of religion)

2. The teachers remain the same except they get paid by public funds.

3. All personnel, cooks, janitors, etc. are on the public pay roll.

4 All text books, audio-visual equipment, etc. are purchased with public funds.

This is one solution. The people involved in this experiment in cooperation are enthusiastic about it because of the additional advantages provided for their children. It is quite a departure from our present structure but worthy of serious consideration

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

The Rev. Homer Gail Crisman has advice on how to become an expert on South America. He says, "Stay 70 years." For the 92-year-old minister himself has spent 70 years in Ecuador and Colombia for the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

In 1897, Mr. Crisman arrived in Ecuador as one of the first Alliance missionaries to that country after its citizens had been given freedom of religion. But even though the missionaries were accepted by the government there was much opposition and at times even physical threat. In those days, Mr. Crisman traveled constantly for hundreds of miles either on foot or by horseback, visiting remote villages, setting up churches and schools and working with the Indians.

Mr. Crisman no longer makes the long hard trips but is still active in aiding the Spanish literature ministry and the book store and in Bible distribution operated by the Alliance mission there. Mr. Crisman says: "... After 70 years of serving Him in South America, I only wish I had another life to lay at His feet."

Cornea Transplant Can Restore Lost Eyesight

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I would appreciate any information on a "cornea transplant." — Mrs. E.F.L.

The cornea is the outer covering of the eyeball. When, because of scarring or injury light is distorted or impeded in passing through the cornea and then the pupil of the eye, eyesight is impaired, or the person may become for all practical purposes blind.

Dr. Molner

Assuming the rest of the eye is still in healthy condition, the damaged cornea can be removed and replaced with the cornea from another eye. This is a corneal transplant, and many people have had their sight restored by that method.

These replacement corneas are obtained from people who have died, leaving instructions that their eyes be given to an eye bank.

The operation can be done very successfully, but the problem is to get enough eyes from which the corneas can be taken. Thus it is quite common for a person waiting for the operation to be told to be ready to go to the hospital immediately as soon as a donor eye is available.

Donor eyes must be removed as quickly after death as possible, and the refrigerated eyes often are flown considerable distances, as the transplanting should be done with as little delay as can be arranged. Only the cornea is used; the entire eye is not and cannot be transplanted.

Dear Dr. Molner: Years ago when I was in school I heard that if you drank a raw egg mixed in some liquid, it would cure a cold. Is this true? Do you happen to know what liquid? I also heard recently on television that the first cold in a submarine will result in no more colds after that. Also that after the first cold at the North Pole, a person will have no more colds. Is either statement true? — Mrs. R.J.

The thing about the raw egg is utter fancy, so forget it.

The other two statements are true, within limits. The point that we catch cold from encountering various cold viruses. Having the cold confers a temporary immunity to that particular type of cold — but we can catch a different cold from some other virus.

Whether it's in a submarine or at the North Pole, or in the middle of a desert or deep in a jungle, if a group of people are isolated, they can catch colds depending on what viruses are present in the group. Once they've had the colds and developed immunity, they are safe from more colds until in some way new cold viruses are brought in.

This has happened repeatedly among men at remote Arctic stations. First they have colds. Then, no matter what the temperature, no more colds until a mail or supply party arrives — bringing some new varieties of cold viruses. Then another round of colds.

Dear Dr. Molner: Two years ago I spent five weeks in the hospital with high blood pressure, a heart condition and perhaps a slight stroke. I am 70

The doctor remarked that my head was worse than my heart. Lately I find myself dropping off to sleep, while reading, without a minute's notice. Am I experiencing slight strokes? — J.F.M.

I doubt that you are having little strokes. Nothing you say indicates it. Increasing sleepiness is not unusual in some older folks.

The circulation to the brain may not be as brisk as it used to be, because of arteriosclerosis. I infer that this is what your doctor meant by your "head being worse than your heart."

Mention this tendency to sleep to him — and he may prescribe medication to overcome it.

Don't take chances with "kidney trouble." It may be only minor, but it can be dangerous. Read Dr. Molner's booklet, "Your Kidneys — Facts You Need to Know About Them." Write to Dr. Molner in care of The Post-Crescent, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Garrison Subpoenaes Three In Assassination Probe

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison has subpoenaed three men to testify in his probe into the death of President John F. Kennedy, saying they had been "in unique position to observe activities relevant to the assassination."

The three were identified as Loran A. Hall of Kernville, Calif.; Lawrence J. Howard Jr., 32, of Elmonte, Calif., near Los Angeles; and Thomas Beckham, 27, of Omaha, Neb. They were directed to appear before the Orleans Parish grand jury on Feb. 1 and 2.

Garrison said the three, wanted as material witnesses in his investigation, had not been questioned by the Warren Commission which said Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone in shooting the president.

Hall, a bartender, denied he ever knew anyone connected with the assassination and said he would fight the subpoena.

Howard, a welder and fitter, was reported by his wife to be somewhere in Mexico and unavailable for comment.

Beckham, who lists himself as a bishop of the Universal Life Church and entertains with Western music under the name of Mark Adams, said he would not return to New Orleans.

"If I did, I would destroy myself." he said in Omaha. "If Garrison is sincere he can come up here and question me."

Beckham said he worked as an investigator for Garrison for about three months in late 1962.

The subpoenas said Hall and Howard were in Dallas in October 1963, one month before the assassination, and were in contact "with Jack Ruby and other individuals believed to be involved in the assassination and that they were in association with Lee Harvey Oswald in Dallas."

Beckham was reported to have been "in active association with certain Cuban exiles in New Orleans in whose company Oswald was seen" and "that he subsequently was reported to be in Dallas in November of 1963 with one of the afore-mentioned Cuban exiles."

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Apply Paper Scraps to Make A Shellaced Mosaic Vase

BY CAPPY DICK

A paper mosaic vase is a colorful object that is suitable to present to someone as a gift It is easy to make from scraps of colored pictures torn out of old magazines

Apply Shellac

Select the most colorful illustrations you can find from discarded magazines The colors involved should include bright red, bright yellow, brown, purple, green, orange, and so on Cut the pictures into pieces of varying sizes and shapes

Find a glass jar or vase of satisfactory shape. Brush shellac over the surface, then stick the bits of paper to the shellac as is being done in Figure 1. They will adhere best if you first brush the back of each piece with some glue

Leave no part of the vase uncovered Overlap the edges of the papers and scatter the colors widely, placing a red paper next to a yellow one, and so on.

When the vase has been covered, apply one or two coats of shellac to keep the papers from becoming torn and also to make their surface shiny

Tax Bills Sent To Menasha Town Residents

$1.7 Million in Revenue; Includes Sewer, Water Fees

MENASHA — A total of 4,278 tax bills, representing $1,703,215 in revenue for the Town of Menasha, were mailed to townsmen Thursday by Treasurer Ebbe Berg.

Included in the bills are $146,709 for sewer and water assessments and $1.132 for weed cutting.

Taxpayers on the west side of the lake will pay $42.91 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, while those connected to the Menasha school district will face a levy of $36.54. The handful of property owners who pay for Appleton schools have a rate of $38.66 per $1.000.

All three tax districts are assessed $2.30 for vocational school purposes as well as $3 for county taxes. The three-mill county tax, the first tax other than school levies in the town, will raise $127,014.

From Funds at Hand

The balance of the county and state taxes — $225,779 — will be paid out of town funds on hand.

The east side of the town pays an additional $5 for the sewage treatment and another $1 for hydrant rentals.

Taxpayers can pay the town bills at the First National Bank of Neenah, the Valley National Bank or by mailing the returns to Berg at 1164 Pages Point, Menasha.

Real estate taxes, paid in full, must be in by Feb. 29, while the first half of installment payments is due by Jan. 31 and the second by July 31. Personal property taxes and special assessments are due Feb. 29.

The First Concrete Was Poured Friday in Menasha's library construction project at Racine Street Park. Workmen have been making steady progress on the job despite cold weather, relying heavily on straw to protect areas where they are working. (Post-Crescent Photo)

Ex-Student at WSU-O Guilty of Marijuana Count

OSHKOSH — Circuit Judge Arnold J. Cane sentenced a former Wisconsin State University-Oshkosh student who pleaded guilty Friday to possessing and using marijuana to 18 months in the Green Bay Reformatory.

Cane then stayed the sentence of the defendant, Stephen R. Evans 21, and placed him on probation for two years. A condition of the probation is that Evans continue to receive psychiatric help. Dist. Atty. Thomas Fink did not oppose probation.

Evans, now living in Milwaukee and attending the University of Wisconsin there, was arrested last spring and charged with not only the possession and use of marijuana but also with giving the marijuana to a WSU-O coed. The charge was later reduced to possession and use.

'Better Prepared Than Ever'

Menasha Makes Blizzard Battle Plans

MENASHA — Earl Kohler, acting street superintendent, says his men and equipment should be better prepared than ever for this season's "battle of the blizzard."

Kohler and the Street Department have worked long hours to put together a city-wide battle plan.

So far winter has refused to give the new plans a test. After all the planning and a special appropriation by the common council to make $5,000 available for snow removal for the rest of this year, only enough snow has fallen to make it necessary to apply salt and sand to reduce slipperiness and encourage thawing and drying. No plowing has been necessary — yet.

But last winter's experience was the reverse. Snow fell so abundantly it left the budget bare of funds last spring — the reason for the special appropriation.

Kohler knows the test will come soon enough. The superintendent explained the problems of a snow storm poses, and outlined the new methods of attacking them.

"The number of men we have on hand to fight a snow storm is very limited and we can't possibly keep as many men on the payroll as we would like to have when a snow storm hits the city." Kohler said.

Kohler explained the city has a total of 46.8 miles of streets and 18 men on the street crew available to help clear them after a storm.

In addition, the department has six trucks with snow plows, including one aged truck with limited capabilities; three medium-sized graders; a plow-equipped jeep; a front-end loader; salt spreader, and a snow loader.

The six trucks are assigned to separate sections of the city on regular routes. The three graders are assigned to what might be considered emergency snow routes — the main roads in the city. The front-end loader is assigned to the city parking lots and Center and Mill streets.

The jeep plows bridges, intersections and crosswalks, and the salt spreader is used at the start after a snowstorm to make the plowing easier and control the ice.

After the plowing is done, the snow loader goes to work, scooping the snow into the dump trucks. Meanwhile, a maximum of four or five men are available to shovel crosswalks, bridges and city-owned sidewalks.

Hopes for Understanding

Kohler said one change planned this year is to try plowing snow into the middle of streets rather than collecting it from the curbs, in certain parts of the city. Kohler said it is hoped the system will be more efficient. He said it should allow crews to move on to other tasks sooner after a storm ends.

Kohler said he hopes the explanation will give citizens an understanding of "the limitations we are confronted with in a snow storm." He pointed out that while trying to provide efficient service, the department also must act "within a given budget, to keep our taxes at the minimum."

He invited civic minded residents to lend a hand by shoveling crosswalks near their homes, clearing snow from around fire hydrants, mail stations and catch basins.

He also advised residents to save themselves trouble by waiting until the plows have passed before shoveling driveway entrances. A cleared driveway, he explained, seems to draw snow off the plow blades in great volume, while an unshoveled drive will admit less additional snow from the passing plow.

Kohler added that, while he hoped understanding of the department's methods would improve attitudes of the public toward the department, he has also given the crew a directive outlining "ways of improving performance and public relations.

Neenah Police Investigate 3 Minor Crashes

NEENAH — Light falling snow and slippery driving conditions were possible causes of three minor accidents Friday.

In mid-afternoon a car driven by J. F. Muscavitch, Pine River, moving in a light line of traffic north of the Commercial and Water Street intersection, was struck from behind.

The driver of the second car, Dale Swenson, 3663 Lasley Place, Oshkosh, according to the police report, could not stop or avoid the Muscavitch auto.

Minor damage was inflicted to the back of the Muscavitch car. Muscavitch complained of a sore neck and was advised to see a doctor. Three passengers in his car were uninjured.

Kenneth Boyle, 1040 Meadow Lane, Neenah, was traveling east in the Fox Point Shopping Center parking lot, when he collided with an auto driven by Robert Liebhauser, 209 Berkeley Drive, Neenah.

Liebhauser told police he was driving north diagonally across the lot when his car was struck in the left side. More than $100 damage was reported to the Liebhauser car.

Frederick Copeland, 407 Ahnaip St., Menasha, was traveling north on U. S. 41 at 10 p.m. Friday, when his car skidded off the road and into the wooded area just south of the Byrd Avenue intersection. The rear end of the vehicle struck a tree and came to rest in a gully The pavement was reported wet with snow.

Judge Denies Petition

Pending $2 Million Lawsuit to Be Heard by Jury in January

OSHKOSH — A $2 million lawsuit which the Menasha Corporation, Neenah, has had pending against the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad Co. for more than three years will be heard in January — and it will be a trial by jury.

The decision for jury trial was rendered Friday by Arnold J. Cane, circuit judge of Winnebago County, and the case has been entered on the January calendar which opens Jan. 8

Litigation began Jan. 28, 1965, following a fire July 17, 1964, which completely destroyed the Menasha corporation's corrugating plant in Menasha.

Case Delayed

Judge Cane denied the defendant's petition and summary motion that there was not sufficient evidence to justify a jury trial. The decision rendered by him Friday is an appealable order and Judge Cane explained that the defendant, the railroad, has the right to appeal the trial by jury. This would delay the action further.

The case has been delayed by a series of legal actions. It appeared on a court calendar for April, 1966, and again for September, 1967. A pretrial conference was held July 21, 1967.

At this conference, the court was informed of the $2 million action for damages allegedly caused to the buildings of the plaintiff, Menasha Corporation, as a result of a fire allegedly caused by the defendant.

All facts of the investigation by both parties were filed and upon their presentation the court set a trial before a jury for November, 1967.

Trial Postponed

Another pretrial was scheduled for Aug. 29, 1967, principally to ascertain if the parties could stipulate damages, and at this session the jury trial was postponed to permit both parties to complete their allegations and proof of causes of the fire.

There were subsequent delays of requests for time until the date was set Friday.

The basic allegation entered in the suit is that workmen with torches carelessly made repairs on the railroad siding of the corrugation plant, which started a fire on the newly creosoted ties. Menasha Fire Chief Cornelius Rippl, in his report of the investigation, stated the source of the fire was unknown.

The blaze, which burned sporadically for four days, was one of the most dramatic in Menasha's history. A crew of 93 firemen fought the fire for more than eight hours, joined by fighters from the surrounding area.

New Rates Aren't Expected to Affect Twin City Mail Totals

NEENAH-MENASHA — The new postal rates should have little effect on the rate of mail leaving Neenah-Menasha, according to Twin City Postmasters John Dachel and James Omachinski.

Dachel said that he expected as much and maybe more mail than usual, and Omachinski said he expected no less immediately although he anticipated that a little change might come next Christmas when it will cost more to mail out Christmas cards.

The new rates, which raise first class letter rates to six cents, and airmail letters to 10 cents and all mail catagories except parcel post and foreign mailings, go into effect Jan. 7.

There have been no last minute large mailings, although Dachel said that bulk mailers who have large mailings of items like catalogues to get out in January will probably get them out by the deadline due to the almost 30 per cent bulk rate increase.

Rates Help Post Office

Dachel said that the new, higher rates would put the post office in better financial position than before, although he said it would be hard to tell on the national level whether the postal operations would enter the black.

Omachinski claimed that the rate increase will create an anticipated additional $9 billion postal revenue. Locally the increase will be felt because of the additional penny required on first class mail.

Some 25 per cent of the mail handled in Menasha is first class, amounting to some 20,000 letters per day, Omachinski said. Neenah's mail flow is approximately 80 per cent first class mail, according to Dachel, or between 30,000 and 40,000 letters per day.

Neenah Board Argues 12-Month School Year

NEENAH — Faced with growing enrollments, skyrocketing teachers salaries and a $5 million construction program in the coming five years, the board of education will debate the subject of a 12-month school year at its Tuesday meeting.

"This is not something new for the board and administration to consider," Supt. Donald Scott commented as he talked about the Jan. 2 agenda.

"For the past several years, when new classrooms were needed, more teachers needed, more money for salary increases needed, the possibility of extending the school year has been mentioned and examined."

He predicted the subject would receive extensive debate Tuesday.

A 12-month school year was mentioned as a solution to mounting school costs at all of the public hearings on the 1968 school budget. The $4.9 million budget, a 20 per cent increase over the previous year, was attributed to increased salaries, inflation, expansion of transportation and growing numbers of students.

Questions Raised

Would extending the school year from nine months to 12 allow the school district to pay its teachers more money, build fewer new classrooms and teach more children with the same number of teachers and in the same space?

Teachers like the idea of a 12-month school year. It could provide time for them to re-evaluate a plan of a sophisticated, current curriculum and make changes dictated by the growing knowledge and needs of the space age, one teacher commented.

In a full examination of the merits of the 12-month school year from the teacher's point of view, it would eliminate extra jobs "to make ends meet" for some. More planning time and special time at three- or five-year intervals to travel or go back to schools.

Shorter Class Days

It could also mean shorter class days for the children but longer school years, which may not be acceptable to them in the beginning.

Two shifts of students using each facility has been tried successfully in a number of school systems to solve bulging enrollments and hold back costs.

The board also will act to accept formally the 1968 budget. Preliminary action will be asked in the acceptance of the salary schedules for the 1968-69 school year.

For the first time since budget negotiations began, the board will unveil the new salary schedule which hiked the base salary for teachers an unprecedented $600. All teachers were put on salary schedule for 1968-69, at the rate of $100,000 in 1968 and another $200,000 in 1969.

Car, Stolen in Menasha, Found

MENASHA — A car reported stolen from a downtown parking stall Friday night turned up early this morning on a residential side street.

Police said Dorothy M. Hilliker, 600 S. Lake St., Neenah, reported her 1961 model car had disappeared from Mill Street in front of the public library. She said she had left it there about 8:15 p.m. and when she returned at 9:30 p.m. it was gone.

A patrolman found the car at 4:30 a.m. on Carver Lane. The owner was notified and came for it.

The keys had been removed from the ignition switch, but the switch is the type that can be left unlocked and operated without the key, police said.

Expect Survey of James Island Soon

Federal Land Grant Would Give Property to Menasha

MENASHA — Engineers expect to complete a survey of James Island in January, laying the foundation for an expected federal land grant giving the city the uncharted piece of real estate in the Fox River's mouth at Little Lake Butte des Morts.

Mc Mahon Associates, Inc., engineering consultants hired to perform the survey, have announced the timetable to Public Works Director Joseph Kelsenberg in a letter.

The letter said the first part of the survey, locating official land marks on the mainland near the island, had been accomplished.

With the land marks established, the surveyors can establish the island's location.

The island fails to appear in official Wisconsin state maps.

Police Investigate Twilite Club Theft

OSHKOSH — County police were called Thursday to investigate a burglary at the Twilite Club, located on U.S. 41 in the Town of Neenah. About $60 in coins were missing from a cigarette machine and cigar box.

Police said entry into the building was made sometime after 1:30 a.m. by breaking the front door glass.

New Owner Will Manage Fuel Firm

OSHKOSH — South Side Wood & Coal Co., 529 W. Sixth Ave., will begin the year under the ownership and management of Wayne W. Grunewald, it was announced last week.

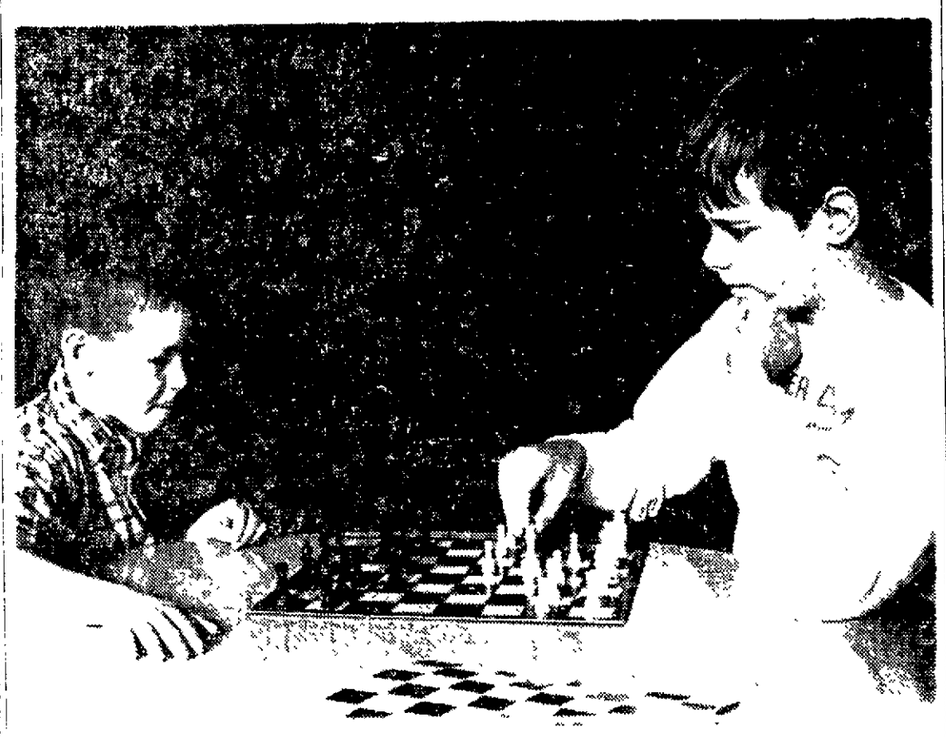

Grunewald, supervisor and general manager of Pluswood, Inc., retail outlets here, at Madison and Green Bay for 11 years, said plans for the future include adding a number of commodities and lines to those now carried by the firm. The additions, he said, will be directed toward eliminating seasonal peaks and valleys of the fuel business.

Grunewald said he will continue the real estate broker business in which he has been engaged since 1956. Recently, he has been instrumental in putting together properties for the Sperbeck apartments and Bethel Home. He has been involved in developing the West Point, Lake Breeze, and Howlett plats.

Serwas Family

Purchase of the South Side Wood & Coal Company was from Edwin M. and Bernard J. Serwas who, with the late Anthony Serwas, have operated the business since 1931. Founded more than 65 years ago, it was acquired in 1906 by a group headed by Anton Serwas. This month's change in ownership ends 61 years of Serwas family operation.

Employing about 10 people, the firm operates a retail and wholesale business of wood, coal, and building materials.

Developer Shows Approved Plans For Housing Elderly in Menasha

MENASHA — A Madison area developer has left sketches already approved by federal authorities to show what a housing development for the elderly here might look like.

Mayor Kenneth Holmes said he met Friday with a representative of the Imhoff Co., who left copies of the architect's drawings for a Madison housing project recently visited by the Menasha Housing Authority (MHA).

However, the developer's representative left it up to the MHA to choose which of two alternate types of federal aid program to seek in building the housing quarters, Holmes said

The mayor said he plans to confer next week with Thomas Coughlin, president of the MHA, to discuss the alternatives and the developer's proposals.

The choice is between a federal housing for the elderly program and a rent supplement approach.

The first would be strictly for elderly persons living on low, fixed incomes. Rent supplements also are available, on the other hand, to younger persons including families with children.

At a recent discussion, MHA members repeated general agreement with the officials in charge of the Madison housing units the local group visited recently. The Madison officials advised against attempting to provide housing for persons other than the elderly at the start, waiting to consider such programs after the first project is in operation.

Holmes said the developer brought the plans used in building the Madison project because they already have been through federal approval procedures. Having them already approved, Holmes said, would expedite construction if the MHA decided to go ahead with the project.

Must Prove Need

Before that can be done, however, the MHA must find a way of proving there is a need here among elderly citizens for such housing, which among other benefits would free retired landowners from the burdens of property taxes and other rising living costs that force them to try with growing difficulty to make their limited incomes stretch over their needs.

So far, the MHA has tried publishing questionnaires in newspapers and distributing others in person, but with limited success. An alternate method of gaining information has yet to be found.

The developer has been in contact with a local real estate firm, but Holmes said the proposals have not progressed to the stage of having a side definitely chosen.

Holmes said the developer "might have some sort of an idea" where he would like to build the structure, but it was too early for a definite choice.

Mayor Buckley 'Kidnaps Texans'

Cowboys Get Red Carpet in Appleton

Mayor George Buckley "kidnapped" the Dallas Cowboys Friday.

And no one seemed to mind it a bit.

Well . . . there were a few anxious moments when club officials wondered what happened to their Eastern Conference champions.

When it was learned Friday morning that there had been a switch in plans and the Cowboys were flying into Green Bay instead of Appleton, Appleton's officialdom reacted.

Buckley, accompanied by Ald. John Ayers (12th), council president, went to Austin Straubel Field at Green Bay.

As the Cowboys, who will be facing the Green Bay Packers for the world's title Sunday, alighted from their chartered Braniff 727 jet — they received a double-barrelled greeting.

Welcome to Wisconsin

Mayor Donald Tilleman of Green Bay welcomed them to Wisconsin and Mayor Buckley went a step further — welcoming them to Appleton where they will be staying through Sunday.

Their home away from home is the Holiday Inn on U.S. 41 west of Appleton.

Buckley made sure the Cowboys got the red carpet treatment when they came to the Fox Cities during the late afternoon.

The 72-member Dallas entourage took two chartered buses from Green Bay to Appleton, and the one with the players on board went through downtown with a police escort.

The snow was falling and the wind howling when the Texans touched down in Wisconsin. They were not impressed by the weather.

When it was learned no other welcome was planned for the Cowboys, Buckley decided to act on his own.

Eager Host

Russ Skall, who operates an Appleton supper club, was an eager host — having attended the University of Notre Dame with Gil Brandt, the talent and promotion manager for Dallas.

Skall received a long distance call from Dallas about 12:30 p.m. Friday from Brandt who said the team would be arriving at Austin Straubel Field in the afternoon and that the members of the coaching staff and club officials wanted to have dinner at Skall's place.

After arrangements were made, Buckley, Ayers and Skall drove to Green Bay.

There were about 200 people at the airport when the Cowboys arrived, including a youngster from Kaukauna dressed in a "small fry" Packer uniform. He held a sign which read: "Packer Backer Welcomes Dallas Cowboys".

There were about 50 persons — mostly youngsters — at the Holiday Inn when the professional gridders arrived on the scene.

With the police escort they were led from Ballard Road to Wisconsin Avenue and then to Meade Street and College Avenue — passing through the business district as sirens blared forth.

Mayor Buckley shook hands with "Tex" Schramm, president and general manager of the Dallas club, and quarterback Don Meredith, as they alighted from the bus.

Sports writers from throughout the country had already checked in at the Holiday Inn and were looking for story angles.

"What did you do with the bus carrying the ballplayers?" one writer inquired.

"Oh, we sort of detoured them so they could get a look at our new milion-dollar College Avenue," Buckley replied.

Writer Commented

At one point a writer commented that he thought Buckley might be running for re-election.

"You guessed right," the mayor said. "I'll be filing my papers next week."

Buckley shook hands with club members and several persons from Dallas who had made the trip to Wisconsin on their own to root for the Cowboys.

At 5 p.m. the Cowboys held a team meeting and all was business. Later the coaches and club officials went to Skall's where they had dinner.

In the meantime, the players weren't saying much — they had come here with a mission . . . and hoped to carry it out successfully.

Russ Skall, Right, played host Friday night to a group of coaches and officials of the National Football League's Eastern Division champion Dallas Cowboys. 8 Applicants Eliminated for County Position

Sheriff, Committee Screen Process Server Possibilities

Eight of 19 applicants for the recently-created post of Outagamie County process server were eliminated Friday afternoon at a meeting of the county board's Law Enforcement Committee.

The county board voted last September to hire a full-time process server, on a contract basis, to work out of the sheriff's department. The board set the salary at $5,500. The process server will be furnished a county-owned vehicle for business purposes. The job will not come under Civil Service.

Several of the eight applicants who were eliminated by committeemen and Sheriff Norbert Marx Friday were 45 years old or more. Marx indicated that he desired men under that age, because in addition to the process server duties, the man would be required to fill in on investigative and general police duties. The applicants ranged in age from 21 to 59.

Narrow the List

The committee instructed Marx to review the remaining 11 applications and narrow the list down to "about five," by Jan. 12. The committee then will act on final stages of the hiring.

In other business Friday afternoon, the committee:

—Agreed to let Marx proceed with plans to raise the pay for deputy assists with prisoners to more than the present $5 per day. Exact pay figures were not discussed.

—Heard that steps are being taken to put a special heavy duty screening over jail cell windows to help prevent escapes.

—Was informed that Kenneth J. Lust, 408 N. Rankin St., was hired as a jailer to fill a vacancy that had existed for some time. Lust started in Pay Grade 9, Marx indicated.

District Created

High Cliff Development Sanitary Plan Okayed

SHERWOOD — A sanitary district to include water and sewage facilities for the proposed High Cliff Inc. development was approved Thursday by Harrison Town Board of Supervisors at a public hearing here.

The area includes property belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schneider and High Cliff Inc., of which Schneider is president. It is adjacent to High Cliff State Park and the area proposed to be incorporated as the Village of Sherwood.

No objections were raised at the hearing. However, one resident questioned whether a sanitary district was being proposed for the entire township and who was paying for the facilities in question.

Property Privately Owned

It was explained that all property within the boundaries is privately owned by the petitioners with the exception of a cemetery and town potter's field, and that only those property owners who will benefit would be taxed. The rest of the town was not affected.

Attorney William Engler, Chilton, explained that the new development would have 213 residential lots, a 250-unit resort motel, 80 unit town houses, plus a golf course and clubhouse.

The water and sewage facilities are necessary for the project development and pollution control.

Engler said the developers were platting lots and that the facilities would be needed for residential use within five years.

Course Ready in 1969

The golf course and clubhouse will be entirely complete in 1969 and the motel is scheduled to open in the spring of 1970.

The group was not opposed to others joining the district, "but we have to get something started," Engler said.

Clarence Perry, representative of the engineering firm of Perry Carrington Corp., Marshfield, explained there would be enough water to serve 1,000 persons besides providing adequate fire fighting protection.

A well and a sewage disposal system are being proposed. Perry indicated the disposal system could be small at first since some lots may be purchased soon but not built on for 10 or 15 years.

Urges Joint System

James L. Lissack, regional director of the Department of Resource Development, Green Bay, stated it would be "beneficial to the area to combine a system for Sherwood, High Cliff Inc , and High Cliff State Park" and said officials should "make every effort to provide a single sewage facility."

Oscar Egger, district public health engineer of the Division of Public Health and Social Services, Fond du Lac, echoed Lissack's remarks, adding, "Attempts should be made to unite facilities".

The three groups met recently in Chilton and engineers for the projects were asked to look into the matter. High Cliff State Park is presently interested in services for the lower park area.

The new district will be known as the High Cliff Sanitary District.

Chilton Man Found Guilty

SIGOURNEY, Iowa — A 12-member District Court jury, following three days of testimony and 4½ hours of deliberation, has found Raymond Hephner, 41, route 4, Chilton guilty of assault with intent to commit murder.

The verdict was handed down about 5:30 p.m. Friday. Sentencing was set for Jan. 22.

Hephner, who also is awaiting sentencing for a $13,000 robbery at a Withee, Wis. bank in April, 1965, could be sentenced to a term of up to 30 years on the Iowa charge. The rural Chilton man, arrested by Keokuk County, Iowa, authorities following an incident at a farmhouse near here Nov. 8, has been in jail under bond since his arrest.

Hephner's son, Michael, 19, route 4, Chilton, will stand trial Wednesday, on the assault charge. His trial also will be in District Court.

He has been in jail here, under $5,000 bond, since his apprehension in Green Bay, Nov. 17. Both men have court-appointed attorneys from here.

The Hephners had been charged with robbery with aggravation after two rural Sigourney farmers reported the night of Nov. 8 that two men had tried to rob them at gunpoint. There were at least two shots fired during a struggle between the two bachelor farmers and their assailants.

Raymond Hephner was captured at the scene and a warrant issued for his son a short time later. Iowa authorities said that the two farmers subdued Raymond Hephner inside their farmhouse, but his companion fled through the rear door.

Raymond Hephner was found guilty Nov. 21 on two counts of abduction and one count of bank robbery. Trial on that charge was held in Federal Court at Madison.

Hephner had been freed on $10,000 bond on the three charges, pending a pre-sentence investigation. No date had been set for sentencing. The Withee bank robbery was April 17, 1965.

Michael Hephner is scheduled to stand trial later on a charge of aiding and abetting in the bank robbery.

Calumet Jury Ruling Upheld By High Court

Precedent Set in Negligence of Lead Vehicle in Crash

In affirming a Calumet County Circuit Court jury ruling Friday, the Wisconsin Supreme Court may have established a precedent adding new areas of liability in traffic accidents.

Its decision left lead, or preceding, vehicles in line of traffic accidents vulnerable.

The case stemmed from an accident April 30, 1964, on U.S. 10, a half mile east of the highway's east intersection with State 114 in the Town of Harrison in which Mrs. James Diener, 310 S. Main St., Brillion, was injured.

Mrs. Diener was a passenger in a car driven by her husband and was in a funeral procession heading from New Lisbon to Brillion. When the lead car in the procession stopped for an oncoming school bus, the hearse, driven by George Hare, New Lisbon, slammed into it.

Avoided Hearse

Diener, following the hearse, swerved to avoid hitting the hearse and swung his car sharply onto the shoulder. The car missed the hearse but hit a mail box shattering the car windshield. Mrs. Diener was injured when the car swerved sharply and when the windshield shattered and sought damages.

Defendants in the Circuit Court trial were Diener; his insurance company, Mid-Century Insurance; Hare, and his insurance company, Heritage Mutual. The jury awarded Mrs. Diener $6,750 plus costs and found Hare 40 per cent negligent even though his vehicle, the hearse, had no contact in the incident.

Heritage appealed the decision and the case was argued before the high court Nov. 27. Robert Lutz, Chilton, represented Mrs. Diener.

Youth Jailed For Stealing 6 Recording Tapes

College Ave. The Outagamie County Sheriff's investigator who saw the incident, stopped Coulthard outside the store, and the youth admitted taking a total of six tapes, valued at $6.95 apiece.

Judge Gustave J. Keller, after hearing the youth plead guilty, sent him to jail until 5:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Minneapolis Man Pays for Bad Conduct

Appleton police arrested the man following a disturbance at Story and Elsie Streets about 2:25 a.m. Dec 22.
